

ISLANDERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE Impacting Your Community

Doty Island residents love their community and it shows! Over the last few months, DIDC has been able to make a few improvements to the community due to your support and donations.

NEW WASTE CONTAINERS

One of the improvements has been to upgrade the Doty Island public garbage cans along Commercial Street.

Back in 2005, DIDC purchased the original 400#

stone garbage cans. Over the years, many fallen apart and needed to be replaced.

In late November, DIDC received a call from the City of Neenah stating Neenah was upgrading their residents' garbage cans to an auto-collection system, and would no longer have the manpower to manually empty the 15 public waste containers along Commercial Street.

DIDC worked with the City of Neenah to find a garbage can that could be emptied with the new trucks. With Neenah's help, DIDC purchased five new public waste containers for Commercial Street and also purchased a sixth container to be added at the end of Nicolet Boulevard (at the "beach").

LIGHTING UPGRADES

As part of our annual Mowry's Table Fundraiser, the Menasha Memorial Building was chosen as one of the recipients. Thanks to donations from Doty Island residents, the City of Menasha received a check for $1,401 to be used to upgrade the Memorial Building lights and ceiling fans. At the end of March, the second floor lights were changed from standard fluorescent lights to adjustable dimming "school house" lights and ceiling fans.

PROGRAMS AT DOTY CABIN

Neenah's Doty Cabin also benefitted from the Mowry's Table fundraiser. The Neenah Park & Rec Department received $1,401 towards Doty Cabin programs. The volunteers are very thankful and excited. Doty Cabin will be teaming up with the Neenah Historical Society on Sat, June 29th for Doty Island Family Day. Check our Facebook page for updates.

SERVICE SUNDAY

Giving Back to the Community

Please join us on Sunday, May 19th at 9:30am at the Smith Park pavilion for CUCC's annual Service Sunday event.

Service Sunday is an opportunity for everyone to get out in the community and pay it forward. Both members and non-members are welcome! This is a community event, come one; come all!

There are many projects to choose from:

- Planting flowers in the Doty Island Commercial Street

Planters (with the help of community business owners).

- Making baked goods for local police and fire departments.
- Loads of Love: visit local laundromats and plug machines with quarters to help community members pay for laundry for a day. Quarters will be provided.
- Creating cards for veterans.
- Remove invasive species at Menasha Conservancy.

At noon, all participants are invited back to the pavilion to share stories and insights about their time giving back; be our guest for a potluck meal.

If you have any questions about this program, call the Congregational United Church of Christ at (920) 725-4873.

SPRING IS COMING! IT TRULY IS.
(And with it, the necessary insects)

Spring hasn't sprung quite yet but it sure is in the air. What have you noticed in your Doty Island neighborhood that tells you we might really, REALLY, be on our way to a glorious spring and summer?

Well, there are the squirrels, ever more busy since we're seeing more daylight. With our many, many trees on the Island it's fun to witness their zippy antics in gathering more nesting materials. And lo and behold, returning to our neighborhoods are the birds that winged south during late fall such as the Baltimore oriole, rose-breasted grosbeak, indigo bunting and an amazing 29 species of warblers.

Let's not forget that itchy fingers are the telltale sign of every gardener's dream of prodding the earth in preparation for pruning, planting and landscaping. Along with such work come the insects. Although there are an array of plant products available for yard work, most of them quite safe to use, there remain some that are ultimately dangerous to nature, particularly some insects. The decline in insect populations is intensive agriculture, urbanization and climate change. Since insects are at the center of the food web, they keep the soil healthy, recycle nutrients and control pests. However, as much as protecting this vital life chain is, when the time comes to gain control over invading pests that may pose a danger to humans, animals and residences, as well as plants and trees, Dallas Brazee of Brazee Ace Hardware on Commercial Street says that eco-friendly products can easily be found at their store. There is A Safer Brand, an umbrella label under which there is insect killing soap, 3 in 1 Garden Spray, and a garden fungicide as well as Eco-Smart Wasp & Hornet Killer.

Adding plants that attract natural pest eaters or that repel pests is a great idea. Planting milkweed for Monarchs (the only food they eat), and mulching less provides better access for bee species to build their nests. "Love them or loathe them, we humans cannot survive without insects." (The Guardian, 2/10/19.) Knowing how devoted Doty Islanders are about maintaining the natural beauty on the Island, these few, simple suggestions make sense.

Yes, spring is coming, so buy yourself a new pair of gardening gloves, spruce up your tools, and be ever mindful that Doty Island is shared by all of us – trees, plants, birds and insects. (P.S. And flowers! Mike and Dallas at ACE predict their first shipment of perennials and annuals will be arriving late April, early May. “Depending on the weather, of course,” adds Dallas.) Don’t we know.

Fair Winds and Following Seas

plan and folders to keep it all organized. As DIDC President, Dick required any new event or project to have both a committee and a chair to insure a successful outcome.

He was widely known on the Island and had a special commitment to beautification. Dick took on the original flower planters on the Commercial Street Bridge railings, lavishing them with care on a near daily basis, hauling countless gallons of water to keep them thriving.

With his booming voice and broad smile, Dick had a great rapport with children.

A pivotal chapter of Doty Island Development Council history came to an end on January 2, 2019, with the passing of Dick McCrory. A moving celebration of his life was held on what would have been his 83rd birthday, on January 12, concluding with full military honors.

Dick had a decades-long history with DIDC, dating back to its earliest days. He held many positions in the organization, including President, and remained an Emeritus Board Member in recent years. His volunteerism was central to many of DIDC's signature activities that continue today, including the flower planters, the Annual Picnic, and the Annual Clean-Up. Early programs, such as the annual spaghetti dinner and 4th of July Parade float have fallen away, but Dick is still remembered for his enthusiasm and leadership of these efforts as well. No surprise that he was a recipient of the Mike McKinnon Unsung Hero Award.

A proud veteran of 22 years in the U.S. Navy, Dick brought his organizational skill and military discipline to every task. Don Merkes recalls that Dick created event how-to guides, complete with a Fellow DIDC Board Member and neighbor, Michele Lynn, recalled his kindness to her boys. They called him "Doty Island Dick," and looked forward to the cards he sent to each of them on every holiday and birthday. At his memorial service, friends and family members called him the Card Missionary because of the hundreds of cards he sent, year after year, for every occasion.

Longtime friend, Mark Lange, shared that Dick had a talent for making kids smile with winks and funny faces and grins - delighting parents and children alike over the years.

It wasn't only children who received a large dose of nurturing from Dick. Adults also experienced his kindness and compassion, his willingness to listen and be supportive when that was just what was needed. A generous man, Dick gave both time and money to the causes and endeavors he supported. He lived modestly and like many of his generation, saved paper records of everything. When it was time to sort it all out, he had filing cabinets full of cancelled checks for donations to hundreds of charitable organizations.

DIDC, and by extension everyone on the Island, has benefitted enormously from Dick's commitment of time, money, and spirit. From the thousands of steps he walked pulling a wagon full of water for the flowers, to his leadership in building DIDC into a sustainable and vibrant community group, right down the brats he personally purchased for years for our Annual Picnic - we'll never see another like him.

VISION ARCHITECTURE, LLC Doty Island's Newest Residents

Vision Architecture has moved to Doty Island! They are located inside the Jersild Building at 350 N. Commercial Street.

Owners, Adam Heindel and Amy Barker are partners in life as well as their business. Both enjoy being "project warriors" in everything from community projects (Loop the Little Lake) as well as getting their hands dirty while completing personal home renovations.

With their personalities, it's not surprising that Vision Architecture lives up to its principle that "every project is important, no matter how large or small." Adam and Amy believe opportunities for great design dwell in projects of all types and sizes.

Why did Vision Architecture choose Doty Island as their main office location? They cannot imagine being anywhere else! Their company is growing and the owners share a love of historic downtown buildings. With multiple investment properties on Doty Island, they know Doty Island's neighborhood culture.

You may recognize some of Vision Architecture's work around the Fox Valley. For instance, do you recognize the Time Warner building located in Grand Chute? Vision Architecture is not just a local firm; it has projects throughout the United States—including a current project in Greenville, South Carolina.

Mark your calendars for August 1st. Check out Adam's guitar skills when he plays with his band at an Out to Lunch Concert at Shattuck Park. The Out to Lunch concerts are part of the Summer Concert Series hosted by Future Neenah.
