

GENEVA WINTER OPEN PADEL 2019

Organization:

Padel First
Rue des Eaux Vives, 15, 1207 Genève

Tournament Director: Manuel Faure

Contact : +41 76 383 56 44, stephanuel@hotmail.com

Deputy: Aurélien Clergue

Contact : +41 79 225 55 92 / +33 7 61 86 64 04, aurelien.clergue@padelfirst.ch

Tournament Venue:

Geneva Country Club, 47 route de Collex, 1293 Bellevue

Country Club courts specificities:

Tournament will be on 2 indoor courts, with artificial LED lighting from the venue roof (not from the courts). Court 1 surface is PVC, and court 2 is Soft Green set. It is forbidden to wear shoes with black templates to play on those courts. The organization will be deciding on which court each match is played.

Getting outside the court to catch a ball during a point is forbidden as there is an obstacle on the door way and it can be dangerous.

Tournament type and Categories:

Geneva Winter Open Padel is homologated by the Swiss Padel Association (SPA) and thus brings points and counts for the Swiss ranking for both categories.

The tournament will have 2 categories:

- Category 1 (350)
- Women (250)

Tournament date and time:

Tournament will begin on Saturday March 9th at 09:15 AM and will end on Sunday March 10th 8pm at the latest.

Access is free for externals (non-players).

Admissions:

Tournament is open to any person above 18, independently of place of residence or nationality.

Tournament is unisex for Cat 1, and women only for Women category.

Each female player can participate in both categories if wanted.

The tournament is open for everybody, holding a swiss padel licence or not. However, priority will be given to pairs with 2 licenced players, then to pairs with 1 licenced player, before pairs with no licenced player, up until we reach the maximum number of teams per category:

- 8 teams minimum, 16 teams maximum for Category 1 350
- 4 teams minimum, 8 teams maximum for Women 250

Only licenced players will earn ranking points in their category.

Registrations:

Licensed players can register directly on SPA web site swisspadel.ch:

Licensed teams registration: <https://swisspadel.ch/?event=country-club-geneva-open>

Teams with at least one un-licensed player must register to either the tournament director or his deputy.

Players will register as a team (2 players) and subscription must contain the below information for both players:

- Name, Surname, sex, birth year, address, phone number, e-mail, nationality, 2019 SPA licence number (if applicable), ranking (if applicable) and the tournament category for which the team is subscribing.
- Confirmation of payment of the subscription fee.

If there are more subscriptions than the available seats, we will first look at the admission criteria (licensed players or not), then registration order (date/time at which we received the email, first come, first served).

Registration deadline:

Deadline to register is Sunday, March 3rd. In case there are not enough teams, this deadline would be moved to March 5th, 4pm.

Padel First will notify the teams that have not been admitted as soon as possible, the latest being on March 6th.

Registration fee:

Fee is 50 CHF per player for Category 1 and 30 CHF per player for Women.

The fee is to be paid by bank transfer only, towards Padel First account below. Transfer must mention: « Geneva Winter Open 2019 + Player Name ».

Draw and seeded teams:

Draw will happen on Tuesday March 5th, 7:30pm, at the Geneva Country Club, it is public. Results of the draw will be shared with each team.

Seeded teams will be defined as per the SPA 2019 Tournament Regulations (TR), which is available on the SPA web site.

Rules

International Padel Federation rules, and subsequently those of SPA TR, apply.

Tournament is direct elimination. After the first game, teams will move forward in the final draw if they win, or the consolation draw otherwise.

Games will be played in 2 sets with Tiebreak in each set at 6 games all. In case the teams draw at 1 set all, a super Tie-Break (10 points) will be played as third set, except for the finals of each category, final and consolation draws, which will play a normal third set.

Depending on the number of registered teams, the organizational team might change the format of the matches and of the draws.

The games will be played without a referee.

Each player is requested to be ready to play and presented to the tournament director or deputy at least 15 minutes before the game scheduled time, and to be reachable at all times on the provided phone number.

If a player is not present 5 minutes after the official game schedule, the tournament director, and him only, can decide to disqualify the team.

Warm up time is 5 minutes maximum.

Balls will be provided by the SPA. 3 new balls will be provided at the beginning of each match. There will be no balls change during a match, unless one of the balls flattens out or is lost, in which case one new ball will be provided as replacement, as to always have 3 balls in game.

For any rule that is not mentioned in this document, SPA rules apply.
