LEWANDOWSKI HAS STRONG BASE BUT RACE FOR 2020 NH REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR US SENATE STILL OPEN

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: 9/9/2019

MANCHESTER, NH – Vote Adjustments, LLC is a political call firm based in Manchester, NH. In an attempt to highlight services and build brand recognition amongst potential clients we have conducted a poll of the prominent candidates for New Hampshire's Republican nominee for US Senate.

Four hundred two (402) individuals were sampled consisting of likely Republican primary voters between September 5th and 6th via telephone. The sample was comprised of 30% cell phones and 70% landlines providing a margin of error of ± 4.9 at the 95% confidence level.

In order to determine likely voters in the Republican primary we sampled individuals who were registered Republican or Unaffiliated AND had voted in either/both of the last two Republican state primaries conducted in September or 2016 and 2018. Voters were then screened if they expressed interest in voting in the Democrat primary in 2020 or not voting at all.

Results were weighted based on geography, age, and gender to mirror previous Republican primaries in New Hampshire.

Unsurprisingly, our results were very similar to a poll released in mid-August of last month, a testament to our accuracy and weighting.

In an effort to build trust we are releasing with the results of this poll the scripting and screening questions. No message testing was conducted and candidates' names were read in random order each time.

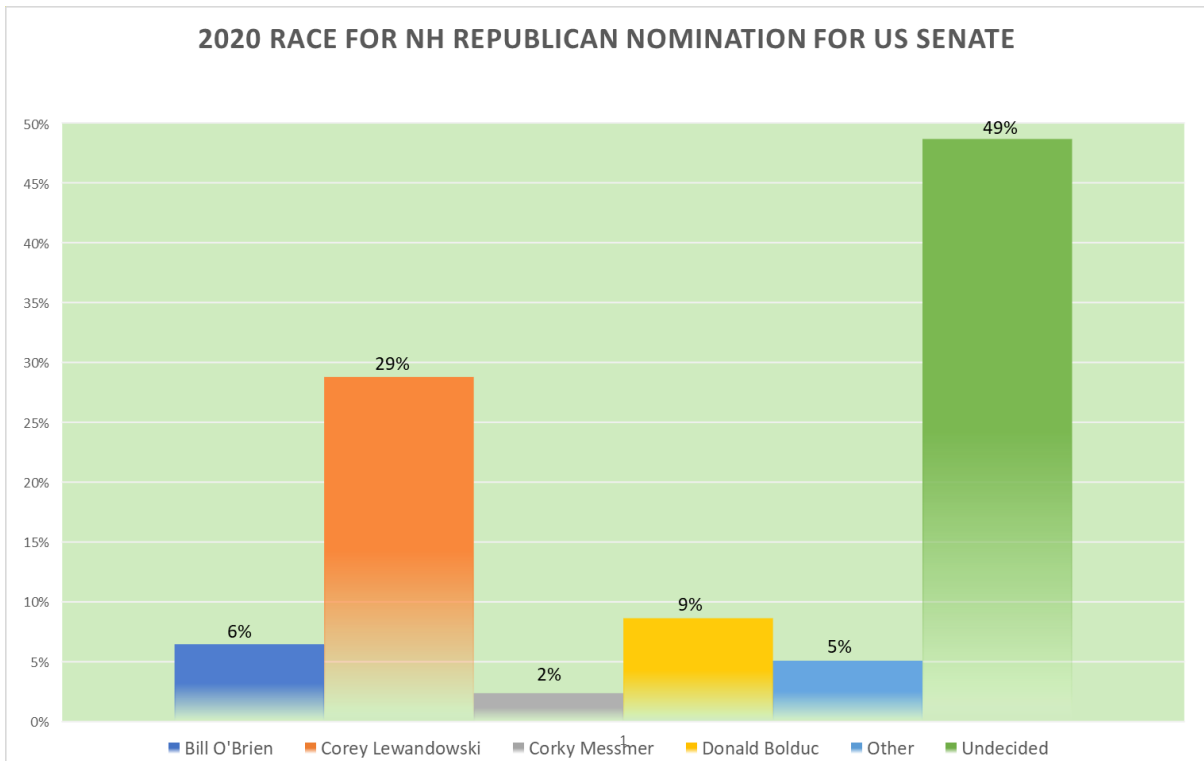

Our core finding is that Corey Lewandowski has a strong base near 30% and is most certainly the frontrunner as of today. What is surprising is the number of people who without prompting know Lewandoski's name and his strong association with President Trump.

Immigration, Jobs and the Economy, and 2nd Amendment issues appear at the front of Republican voters' minds. This was expected given the recent media coverage of all three issues, especially the calls for gun control coming from Congress.

With a year left to run and 49% undecided, this race is certain to change and will be watched nationally as it is considered a cornerstone for Republicans to maintain control of the US Senate.
