MUN SIONG GROUP ADDS ANOTHER WSH PERFORMANCE (SILVER) AWARD TO ITS BELT

Singapore, 30 July 2019 – Mun Siong Engineering Limited was presented the Workplace Safety & Health Performance (Silver) Award for 2019 from the Workplace Safety and Health Council (WSHC).

The Group has been a consistent recipient of this accolade since 2011. The award recognises the Company for performing well in safety and health through the implementation of sound safety and health management systems. The main qualifying criteria is to have zero accidents and no reportable incidents or dangerous occurrences.

Ms. Cheng Woei Fen, the Group's Executive Chairlady said, "Securing the WSH Performance Silver Award for another year affirms us that we are on the right track towards meeting our safety goals. This can only be achieved with the strong partnership between our employees – for embracing our safety culture as well as our Safety Health and Environment Team – for their tremendous effort in developing effective campaigns and programs to promote the importance of safety and health in the work place. We will continue to raise the bar in the department of safety and health and ensure that all our employees continue to go home safe each day."
