"MY LIFE IN CHINA"

- A Chinese gentleman escaped poverty and starvation during the Cultural Revolution in 1966.
- After risking his life to get to America, he started a family in Boston. But when his restaurant went bankrupt and his wife got sick, he began to feel as if he had failed at the American Dream and wondered whether he should move back to his home village in Guangdong Province to participate in the new Chinese Dream.
- This is the story of the trip back to China to reconnect with old relatives and friends, and to decide whether to stay or return to the States.
