TTA Family Day

Wednesday August 14, 2019

Attention boys and girls ages 12 - 18 years! Have you ever thought of producing a documentary? Well! This summer you have a chance to do just that. Learn some life long career skills in interviewing, video taping, narrating and editing to produce a DVD. (Call: Marjorie Lue Sang at 905-831-1805 to register by Monday August 5th.

Create a DVD of your family history. How often have you heard people say, "I am so sorry that when I was young I didn't listen to my parents as they told stories of their youth." Bring your family pictures and let's start with your earliest memories. Call Marjorie at 905-831-1805 by August 5th, to help you prepare for making your DVD.

Table Tennis is a game for all ages bring your friends, your Mom and or Dad to see if they remember how to play the game fro 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. Space is limited, so come early and try to get a game in.

If you play the piano or any other instrument, bring your favourite music sheets to entertain us. Practice your dunking skills, who knows, this may lead to dreams of joining the Raptors. We have puzzles, Lego, crayons and books, to entertain toddlers and all age group.

The Needlework Workshop has lots of items on sale and will be taking registration for their up coming workshop in the fall, see Christine McNamee at the workshop table for more information. Christine will also help you design and make your own rock painting.

How about a scrapbook, this is a wonderful keepsake that you can surprise a friend, grand parents love getting keepsakes from their grandkids. Tanya Hugh will help you to make them. Be sure to bring your pictures and make it fun.

Elaine Chen and guest from her garden club would like to greet all gardeners, especially those who have recently downsized from a house to a condominium and is experiencing "garden withdrawal."
