Subject: Re: Mediated Settlement Agreement

Although I am very sure that your email is well written, I have read only a small part.

No. After much thought and discussion, there is no longer a middle ground. The agreement must be made void. This is wrong and manipulation. I believe that it is in the best interest for almost all of us for this event and outcome to go away. I ask that you fix this and make it right for my beliefs and regardless of your personal position. I depended on you then. This event requires correction.

Please let me know if you intend on working towards voiding the agreement.

Bests,
Wendy

Wendy: I have attached a memo that sets forth my view of the situation. Let's discuss after you have a chance to review. We have not heard back from Todd Frankfort or Allen Brady yet, but I think we do need to decide how to proceed.

I read only a section of the “confession email” and requested the mediation voided.
