

Judging Clerks needed!

The North Jersey Orchid Show & Sale is January 17-19, 2020 at Rutgers University Douglass Cook Student Center. Judging is on Friday January 17 starting at 8:30 am and finishing around Noon. Clerking is a great way to get to know the AOS judges and learn about what makes a great flower, plant, and/or exhibit. A light breakfast and lunch are provided. If you'd like to clerk for the judging, please contact Carrie Buchman. No experience is required. Everyone is welcome!
