This year's charity will again be the 'Children's Cancer Welfare Service Incorporated', a registered charity staffed by volunteers (The Late Pat Primmer from PIMA was on this committee) who raise funds to support families affected by children with cancer. All the funds raised by them are distributed through organizations such as Westmead Hospital & Ronald McDonald House to give support to families who have come under financial pressure due to having a child suffering from this disease. Organize a table of your friends and book now.

Further details regarding the 'Children's Cancer Welfare Service' can be obtained by visiting their website www.childrenscancerws.org.au.

Organize a table of your friends and book now. Remember, ALL PROFITS FROM THE DAY ARE PASSED ON TO THE CHARITY – PIMA does not make any money from this day. /over
