

Tyler W. Wood

Associate

Tyler Wood practices general business, real estate, contract, and insurance litigation. Specifically, his practice currently focuses on defending builders, developers, and contractors in complex residential and commercial construction defect cases. He prioritizes advocating persuasively and effectively for his clients, with a specific focus on creative and cost-effective legal solutions that are crafted to move litigation toward the client's desired result. His interests include traveling and trying new restaurants with his wife, spending time with his daughter, and the playing the guitar.
