Halles de la Machine et Petit Train

Wednesday, 23 October

Visit the Halle de La Machine, a journey into a spectacular and poetic universe, an immersion in the world of La Machine ... In other words, an exhibition of performance machines, each moving and telling a tale. From the smallest, which can be held in the palm of your hand, to the biggest weighing up to several tonnes, these performance machines have chosen to move into La Halle de La Machine whilst waiting to set off on their travels to provide entertainment across the globe. The bread catapult, the blackbird pendulum, the wine-serving machine (does it?) or perhaps the aerial service with its pepper mill, each machine tells a story and entertains through its movement and its identity.

Then visit the Gardens of the line, located in the same complex as the Halle, along the former emblematic aeropostale runway, this 3-hectare landscaped area features the atmospheres of the 3 continents crossed by the Aerospostale line. A way to relive the adventure by crossing the landscapes and climatic environments of 8 different countries from Montaudran to Valparaiso in Chile. Lunch. Discover Toulouse with the Petit Train, Garonne circuit starting from the Place Capitole, then St Sernin basilica, St Pierre des Chartreux, St Pierre des Cuisines, Place St Pierre, quai de la Daurade, School of the Fine-Arts, Places of St Georges and Wilson. Free time. Return
