

Alisa Gregory

Colonel Alisa Gregory leads the Administrative and Operations Majors at the Henrico County Sheriff's Office and has worked for the Sheriff's Office for 21 years. She was born in Richmond and went to Highland Springs High School graduating in 1987.

She earned a bachelor's degree in Human Resource Management with a minor in Leadership from the University of Richmond where she also received her master's degree in Disaster Science (Emergency Management). Prior to joining the Sheriff's Office, she worked for the Postal Service.

In 1998 she became a Deputy at Jail East. Since then she has worked in Alternative Sentencing, Training, Administrative Services, Programs and Quality Assurance before becoming Chief Deputy in 2015. In August of 2019 she was promoted to Colonel.

She is a DCJS Certified General, Firearms and Defensive Tactics Instructor; FEMA Instructor for ICS 100; 200; 300 and 400; FBI-LEEDA Trilogy Award Recipient; Deputy of the Year in 2001 awarded by Varina Ruritan Club; Excellence in Public Service in 2006 awarded by Henrico County; Distinguished Service (Tom) Baehr Award in 2006 from the Henrico Sheriff's Office

Colonel Gregory's professional affiliations include FBI-LEEDA; American Jail Association; Virginia Sheriff's Association; American Correctional Association; International Association of Chiefs of Police and Virginia Association of Directors of Criminal Justice Training.

She is married with four children and three grandchildren.

