NCCPEP's Recruiting, Selecting, Developing, and Retaining Mentor Teachers Workshop is a two-day* event that will offer a unique PK-24 professional learning opportunity, designed to support university-based and school-based educator clinical partnerships in establishing new processes and strengthening existing approaches for recruiting, selecting, developing, and retaining high-quality mentor teachers.

The workshop will be facilitated by an experienced clinical practice partnership team made up of university professors and PK-12 mentor teachers. Follow-up support resources will be made available after the workshop and are included in the cost of registration. In addition, opportunities to participate in a future NCCPEP-facilitated affinity group will be made available to all registrants!

Meet the Workshop Facilitators!

Audra Parker, PhD; NCCPEP Director & Professor; College of Education and Human Development; George Mason University

Kristien Zenkov, PhD; NCCPEP Director & Professor of Education & Secondary Education (SEED) Program Coordinator; George Mason University

Drs. Parker and Zenkov will also be joined by their PK-12 clinical partners who serve as mentor teachers in George Mason University's Professional Development School Network.

Stay tuned for updated information about these expert school-based professionals who will co-facilitate throughout the workshop!
