Legend - How to use this document.
Provided Names Names for each personality of God are given in the "clear" spaces. When a Name for the Son and/or Spirit are similar or strongly related, they show up in the same line. Thus, each line correlates attributes between the Personalities of God. This demonstrates how they are linked (e.g., Eloim, Almighty One, Breath of the Almighty), or work together (e.g., Savior, Spirit of Christ). For instance: <table><tr><th colspan="3">Elohim (or Elohay) &lt;----- Related -----&gt;</th><th colspan="2">Almighty One &lt;----- Related -----&gt;</th><th colspan="2">Breath of the Almighty</th></tr><tr><td>Elohim (or Elohay)</td><td>Strength or Power</td><td>Genesis 1:1</td><td>Almighty One</td><td>Revelations 1:8</td><td>Breath of the Almighty</td><td>Job 33:4</td></tr></table>							Elohim (or Elohay) <----- Related ----->			Almighty One <----- Related ----->		Breath of the Almighty		Elohim (or Elohay)	Strength or Power	Genesis 1:1	Almighty One	Revelations 1:8	Breath of the Almighty	Job 33:4

How To Use Them Use these names as you read Scripture. Their meaning and links to one another will help you get to know who God is, what is important to Him, and how He wants to have a relationship with you. Especially with Names of the Father, you may find that they read "God" in the Scripture. This is how many translations deal with these Names. The Complete Jewish Bible (CJB) does better. But when you see "God" you can insert the name translated from the Hebrew located in this sheet where it reads "God." This will give you more context for which part or personality of God is being demonstrated. E.g., replacing "Parent" with "dad" or "mom." Meanings for the Hebrew names for the Father are given, but since the names for the Son and Spirit are understood in the English language translation, I've not provided thoses. These Names can be checked using a Bible concordance like Strong's or, online using the Blue Letter Bible (https://www.blueletterbible.org/).
Similar Names Similar names are listed together: Unless otherwise noted, the correlations work like this: <table><tr><td>Name 1 correlates to</td><td>Scripture reference 1</td><td colspan="5">&lt;- -&gt; By default they are all</td></tr><tr><td>Ref 1 -----</td><td>Scripture reference 2</td><td colspan="5">&lt;- -&gt; generally related to each other</td></tr></table>							Name 1 correlates to	Scripture reference 1	<- -> By default they are all					Ref 1 -----	Scripture reference 2	<- -> generally related to each other
Name 1 correlates to	Scripture reference 1	<- -> By default they are all
Ref 1 -----	Scripture reference 2	<- -> generally related to each other
