The Trans Advocacy in Rural Places program builds community knowledge, legal skills and grassroots power for the legal self-sufficiency of transgender, two spirit and gender diverse people who live in rural or geographically isolated areas across Washington state

Want more programming in your area? Let us know by emailing dusty@lavenderrightsproject.org.

Trans Advocacy in Rural Places in partnership with Gonzaga University's Center for Civil and Human Rights will host monthly transgender ID assistance clinics at Gonzaga Law School. Open to the public-no need to be a student to attend! The clinic is every 3rd Wednesday: 9/18, 10/16, 11/20

We'll offer help in navigating name and/or gender marker changes for all IDs, notarization for key documents, and consultations with legal professionals—all free of charge. No RSVP needed, just come by when you can! For more information visit: lavenderrightsproject.org/tarp
