OPEN PROGRAMS IN INVESTMENT BANKING FOR 2020

Citi's Investment Banking team advises corporate clients all over the world who want to raise funds in capital markets and who need advice in strategic transactions. Projects you will be working on with clients include mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, financial restructurings as well as underwriting and distributing equity, debt and derivative securities.

Our Frankfurt office covers the third largest market for Citi globally after the US and the UK, and 90 years of history in Germany have led to Citi covering the largest German corporate footprint of any non-domestic bank.

INVESTMENT BANKING PLACEMENT ANALYST (INTERN) 2020

Citi's Investment Banking team in Frankfurt is seeking new talented Placement Analysts (Interns) to join the team in 2020.

During your 3 month internship you will be fully integrated into the day-to-day business of our project teams advising clients on transactions. You will be essentially supporting the Investment Banking team by conducting research and analysing industry trends, preparing client presentations, building financial models and conducting company valuations.

Please apply online at citi.me/2YwNdec.

INVESTMENT BANKING FULL TIME ANALYST 2020

Citi's Investment Banking team in Frankfurt is seeking new talented Full Time Analysts to join the team in Summer 2020.

The Analyst program starts in July 2020 and begins with a five week, in-depth training in London before you hit your desk.

Your time on the Program will be spent doing any or all of the following:

- Conducting research and analyzing industry trends related to business development
- Building financial models, assessing valuations, and exploring corporate finance solutions for big-picture financial analyses
- Participating in client development, including coordinating data with clients and assisting in the presentation of new ideas to clients
