

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION FORM

ASPAC 2019, 4-6 SEPTEMBER 2019

Hosted by Queensland Museum, Brisbane, Australia

Science: Make the future you want!

Professionals and practitioners from across Science Centres and Museums, STEM industry, learning and research organisations are encouraged to submit papers and attend the 2019 ASPAC conference, to collaborate, connect and generate new ideas about how we can collectively maximise the impacts of science communication and build better futures for our communities.

Please complete and submit by 29 March 2019.

ABSTRACT TITLE (15 words):

CONNECTING TO THEME (choose one):

- Day 1: Valuing the past to inform the future Day 3: Creating a collaborative future
- Day 2: Current and emerging trends in science engagement

PRESENTATION FORMAT (choose one):

- Plenary session (30 - 45 mins) Parallel session (20 mins)
- Lightning talk (10 mins) Curated panel (45-90 mins)
- Workshop (1 or 2 hours) Demonstration/performance/song/dance (please specify time proposed)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

PRESENTERS AND AFFILIATIONS:

PRESENTER'S BIOGRAPHY (50 words):

ABSTRACT (please submit on separate pdf):

SHORT VERSION FOR PROGRAM (50 words):

This information will be included in the Conference Handbook to assist delegates with choosing sessions.

OPERATIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

Please add any access, space or equipment requirements.

Notes to Organising Committee:

Please add any additional information that may assist us to consider your proposal.

Please submit this form and direct any inquiries to:
ASPAC@qm.qld.gov.au

The call for abstracts will close at 5pm AEST, 29 March 2019.

CONTACT DETAILS:

Name:

Position

Organisation

Country

Contact email

Phone number