Hello Mohammed,

Another complaint has been received from the Employment Standards Branch. Please see attached for the complaint form.

If the above allegations are correct, please forward a cheque, made payable to the complainants, to my attention at the address shown below by June 25, 2019. If statutory deductions are withheld, include a statement indicating the individual amounts remitted to Canada Revenue Agency. I will forward the cheque to the employees and will consider the payments when determining any wages that may be outstanding.

If you wish to dispute the above allegations, please contact me at the telephone number noted below to discuss your position and also forward a copy of your payroll records and any other supporting documentation regarding this complaint by June 25, 2019. Another Demand for Employer Records is attached. Please note this Demand is specific to the new complaint. The deadline for the previous Demands remains in effect.

You are required to disclose, produce and deliver the records specified in this Demand to the Employment Standards Branch on or before:

July 12, 2019 at 9:00 am pst

Physical copies to be delivered via Registered Mail.

Failure to respond to this letter may result in a determination being issued based on the information available in the file. If you are found to be in contravention of the Act, mandatory penalties will be assessed.

Your time and attention to this matter are appreciated. I look forward to hearing from you.

Should you have any questions, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Regards,
