

BLENAVON IRON WORKS OCTOBER 6th 2019

We picked another great day weather wise.

Sunshine all day!

First stop was the Steel Horse Cafe Abergavenny, a newish bike venue.

It was first class.

We then made our way to Blenavon Heritage Centre, very interesting.

The ironworks are nearby which was also quite fascinating.

As a bonus we had a personal guide.

Having a little spare time we decided to pop into The Big Pit for a look round.

Great day out once again.
