

Tuesday 30th July POOLE BIKE NIGHT

A dry ride down with sunshine all the way.

When we arrived we ventured into Wetherspoon's for a coffee and quite unexpectedly the skies opened up.

Very heavy rain which was all over in ten minutes, with the sun returning once again.

Due to the unsettled conditions, the usual hordes of bikes and people were sparse.

There were still some interesting motorcycles descending on the quay to admire.

Great evening!

Tony (Pan Euro)

