

LUNCH IN LYNTON

Sunday November 10th 2019

Once again lucky with the weather, sun most of the day.

First we travelled to Hinkley Point to see the progress there.

Then on to Dunster for our first coffee stop via Dunkery Beacon, wonderful views.

Made our way over the moors next, arriving at Lynton for Sunday lunch.

After lunch we rode a short way to The Valley of the Rocks.

Plenty of goats to view with towering rocks, right next to the sea!

Up Countisbury Hill next, then along Minehead sea front, followed by Blue Anchor with our last comfort stop at Watchet.

Finally homeward over Quantock Common, riding past Hawkridge Reservoir, Bridgwater, Seven Bends and home.

The group enjoyed the day, commenting on some of the locations they hadn't seen before.

Cheers Tony (Pan Euro)
