

Survivingbreastcancer.org

Empowering Breast Cancer Survivors From Day One

For Immediate Release

Contact: Dr. Laura Carfang, Ed.D.

773.490.7142

laura@SurvivingBreastCancer.org

Breast Cancer Survivor and Pioneer to Speak At the Daughters of the American Revolution Luncheon

When: March 9, 2019

Where: Brick Street Café 315 Augusta St, Greenville, SC 29601

Time: 12:00 p. m.

What: Pink Rose Luncheon

The Daughters of the American Revolution are delighted to partner with Survivingbreastcancer.org and happy to announce prominent speaker, advocate and breast cancer survivor, Dr. Laura Carfang, Ed.D, as their keynote at the annual Pink Rose Luncheon March 9th. One in eight women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in their lifetime in the U.S. Join us for this important event. The luncheon is open to all. Come celebrate with the DAR, and be not only inspired by the headway Dr. Laura Carfang is making in the breast cancer community, but empowered.

About Dr. Carfang and Survivingbreastcancer.org

Laura Carfang, EdD, a breast cancer survivor and the Founder and Executive Director of SurvivingBreastCancer.org, was diagnosed with breast cancer in late 2016 at age 34. SurvivingBreastCancer.org, is a 501(c)(3) non-profit breast cancer patient care platform, committed to empowering breast cancer patients, survivors, and caregivers, from day one. Its website has become a second home where patients, survivors and caregivers share their ups and downs, provide tips and ideas, hugs, cries, screams, hopes and prayers.

SurvivingBreastCancer.org offers a full range of support and awareness programs.

- Speaker's Bureau promotes breast cancer awareness.
- Meet & Greets provide networking, community, and support in cities around the U.S.
- Survivor Stories on the website give voice to those touched by breast cancer.
- Blogs and Podcasts provide a weekly outlet for those looking to offer inspiration, solace, education, & humor.
- Caregiver's Forum helps deal with the unique challenges of caregiving.
- Resources for gear, nutrition, health, wellness and affirmation.