Information for people facing redundancy

Facing redundancy can be a difficult time. We can help you to find a new job, and make sure you and your family get the financial support you're entitled to, as soon as you're entitled to it.

We can help you look for a job and support you to stay in work.

- We have people who can work with you to find suitable jobs and training.
- Our offices also have an employment zone, where there's information on local jobs and training opportunities.
 - Our 'Find a job' website lists thousands of job vacancies.

We can offer financial support while you look for work

As each person's circumstances are different. To find out the ways we can help you and your family and to apply, go to workandincome.govt.nz and click on Check what you might get.

It's important you apply as soon as possible so your payments aren't delayed. You don't have to use your final pay up first.

You'll need a client number when you apply. If you don't have one, or can't find it, call us on 0800 559 009 and we'll set you up with one. Say "client number" when asked why you're calling.
