Next Meeting

Don't forget that the next meeting is March 29, because Easter falls on the first Sunday in April. This happens to us about every four years! This meeting has a lot going on! First, it is the judging and display day for the Crafts Contest. If you previously placed an entry with Rick, make sure you bring it with you. Andy will also be delivering a short program on "3 Individuals (William D. Clement, John E. Kampe, and Conrad T. Jensen) who came to Waltham and founded companies related to watch industry". Waltham, MA was a beacon attracting mechanically talented or business oriented people from around the world.

My Resignation

I am very sad to have to tender my resignation from all work with the clock club. As you all know, I have cancer and while my condition is stable, I have still been to the hospital twice since Christmas, the last being a stay of 4 days. As a result it is becoming clear to me that I can no longer continue to do all of the things that I was doing. I did not come to this decision lightly. I have loved this organization, particularly making so many wonderful friends, but after 15 years my body is telling me to take a break. This means that we once again need folks to pitch in. This will be my last newsletter, so we will need someone who can do that. I will help out with training and a template.

I will also not be in charge of the auction this year. We will need to have someone who is prepared to take it on. I will help by running the computer the day of the auction, if needed, but I cannot be responsible for cataloguing the items, bidder cards, etc. There will need to be an executive meeting after the regular meeting to hash these things through. If you think you can help, please plan to stay and work through the reorganization with us.

WARNING!! The April Meeting is being held on March 29, due to Easter.

February Meeting

Only 29 souls braved the impending snow to attend the meeting in Febraury. Nevertheless, trading at the silent auction was brisk! We had an interesting tour of the West Coast Clock Museum's collection. And of course we all had lots of time to kibbutz!

Reminders:

- Clock Classes starting soon. Contact Mark Loates for information.
- Don't forget to bring your items in for the Crafts Contest. They must be pre-registered with Rick Robinson.
- The next meeting is March 29 NOT April 5th as it would normally be because that is Easter. As this is the 5th Sunday in the Month of March, it is unlikely to conflict with other chapter's meetings.
- I know it is still snowing and blowing out, but the June Auction will be coming up faster than you realize. Please start thinking about what you would like to put into the auction. We will have a serve yourself brunch again this year as that has worked very well! This year we will include sandwiches in the offerings by popular request.
