PLAYBILL

CELENE SAKURAKO

If curiosity killed the cat, then Celene is the living proof that cats have nine lives. Fuelled by her bottomless curiosity, she writes with a zest that surmounts her tangible wanderlust. Find her plotting her next literary exploit at galleries and gigs with a glass of wine on one hand and a disposable camera on the other by night.

FRANCIS CABAL

Francis is a writer by trade and musician by choice. A self-proclaimed hermit, he has a tendency to hole himself up in his apartment during weekends whenever he doesn't have a gig. He likes long walks on the beach, Sam Peckinpah films, and conspiracy theories. He currently shares his apartment with two cats named after folk singers.

JONETTE VALENCIANO

Quite honestly, Jonette has absolutely no idea with what she's doing, but she's pretty much sure she's having a good time while at it. When she's not injecting humor into her work and getting away with it, she spends her days reading, making comics and art, or prowling the Internet for something shiny. Like memes. Memes are always good.

Bellroy Wallets

If you're sick and tired of lugging around bloated wallets, may we recommend a fine piece from Bellroy? With its quality leather and sleek features, it'll carry around all your essentials with grace and class sans the bulkiness. "Who knew bulky wallets were a choice? I've got around twelve credit cards, a drivers license, some cash and a few photos of my partner and yet my wallet remains sleek enough to be forgotten in my pocket! It's like a Bag of Holding for the modern day, if you'll pardon the geeky gamer reference," explains Tobie Abad, a satisfied user and Senior Game Designer of Indigo Entertainment. (Jonette Valenciano)

Headblade ATX Razor

Look, you can't deny that owning a smooth bald head does have its perks. For starters, you've got zero muss and fuss to worry about, and you get to become the "bad boy" that ladies dig whenever they're about to make a rather pleasant mistake romantically, looks-wise at least. Headblade ATX comes as a worthwhile tool for the job. Styled like a mashup between a toy car and a razor, smooth shaves are assured with this unique-looking razor. The wheels allow you to seamlessly plow through hair with reduced effort. It is ideal for all your essential manscaping needs. (J.V)

STM Trestle 13" Laptop Backpack

Adventurers have a knack for jamming all their necessities in one bag, nowadays including their digital cargo. After all, it's fun to work by the mountains or facing the beach while slipping in a handful of selfies from your GoPro or mobile device. The STM Trestle is as handsomely rugged as a snazzy pair of sneakers and provides ample cushioning for your electronic devices. It can fit a 13" laptop, a tablet computer, a handful of clothes, reading materials, and a water canteen. It's a fitting companion for the working traveler. (J.V)

Black Leather Oxfords by Pedro Del Hierro

During holidays, you will be seeing yourself doing mano to the old folks and parrying awkward questions in your family reunions, or putting on a favorable impression with your main squeeze's family at the dinner table. Whatever the situation is, it always puts up on the timeless charm of classic. We recommend wearing Pedro del Hierro's black leather oxfords. It's the perfect touch of style and sophistication that you've been saving, or saving that step up to a simple shirt-tie-vest-pants ensemble. Will these work just as well on a simple polo and khaki pants? They could, just don't cringe when your girl's little brother pounces on your shoes for a binyag. These shoes could cost you around less than half of your kinsenas, but if you take good care of them, these'll last for a good number of years. (Jonette Valenciano)

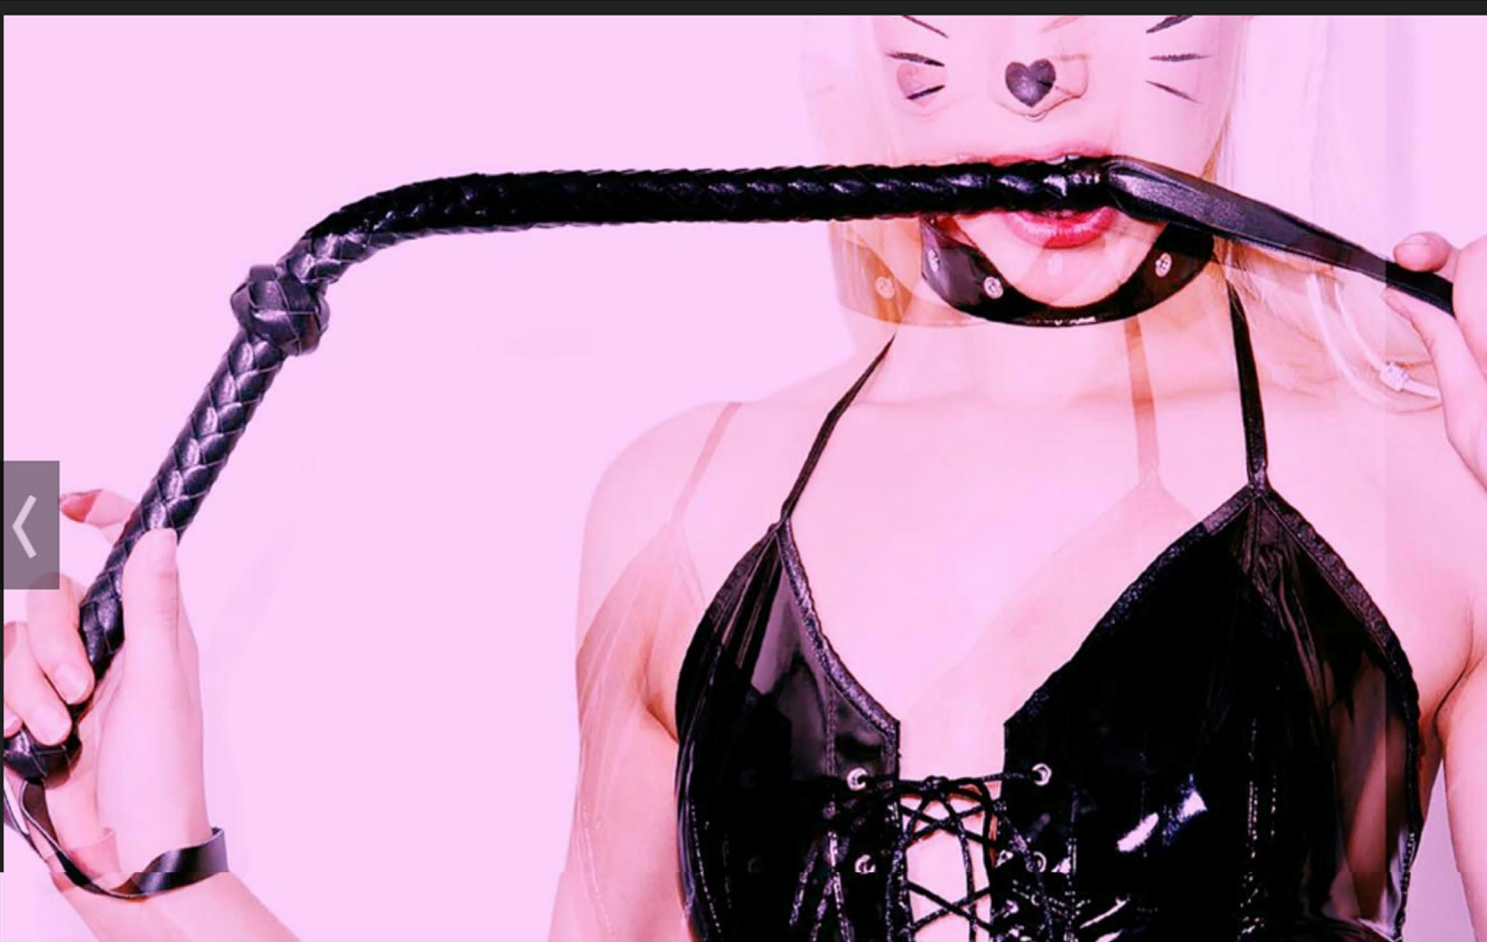

Brathwait Classic Slim Wrist Watch

It's the end of 2016. Fads that came with the start of the year might have already faded, but neutral tones will certainly stick around. The Brathwait Classic Slim Wrist Watch is one of the first things that come to mind. Its pronounced face is embellished with reflection-resistant, dome sapphire glass and a neatly polished bezel. This watch is also water-resistant, up to 100 meters underwater. And the brown calf leather strap has the appeal of a timeless classic. You can't go wrong with this. (J. V.)

WOLFE+HUNTR Leather Suspenders

Don't scoff; these are not your grandad's suspenders. WOLFE+HUNTR makes classic men's suspenders with a rather unique and playful nod in the details. After all, they're "clean and classic - with just the right amount of wild." Their classic suspenders are made of pure leather in brown or black, and look good enough to wear on a shirt - or without. Feeling edgier? Their custom harnesses and holsters can make you feel like a total stud and bring out your inner Indiana Jones. They're not all just for show, though - photographers, for instance, will appreciate the sturdy make of the straps, allowing them to tote around their bulky DSLRs without much trouble. (J. V.)

KINKY PRESENTS FOR KRIS KRINGLE

It's that special time of the year when we all get busy with our Christmas shopping, Christmas parties, and endless rounds of merrymaking. Part of this routine is the annual Kris Kringle where lots are drawn and presents are exchanged. You can kick up the fun factor by tossing in the kink factor in buying gifts. After all, hot and steamy affairs add much needed warmth to the cold Christmas air.

BY JONETTE VALENCIANO

So without further ado, here's a fun list of kinky toys to give (or receive), whether you're getting them for an officemate, a special friend, your partner, or for yourself. These babies go beyond furry handcuffs and naughty dice, so be ready to get some serious sexy happening.

FOR HIM

If you decide to give the gift of naughty either to a bro, your partner, or yourself, it always pays to remember that every dude views "the deed" differently. So, we're here to offer two toys that add pleasure to applied pressure until the user gushes in sheer delight.

First off, we've got the Tenga Flip Hole¹. Tenga has become one of the go-to brands for self-pleasure sleeves that are compact, and dare we say, cute. The Flip Hole opens up pretty much like a flip phone, and reveals a Thermoplastic Elastomer landscape of bumps, ridges, and cushions. Trust us, it's like a tiny version of Luke Skywalker's Trench Run, only for your willy.

Once your "Solid Snake" is encased in the Flip Hole's snug and cushy interior, the three buttons outside allow you to put pressure on any area you want to make it work for you. It's easy to clean and easy to dry, and easy to take anywhere with you. And we do mean anywhere.

If you want a toy that's packed with even more intensity and a tinge of fine European architecture, may we recommend the Tenga Spiral²? Stored inside out in a clear acrylic case, it actually looks like an architectural marvel that practically hides in plain sight on your bedside console, work desk, or even living room mantle. Flip it inside out, and it turns into a snug sleeve with a ribbed spiral center. It might look pudgy and a little too short on the outside, but it's what on the inside counts. And given its appearance, there's no shame in wanking off with pinkies raised.

In addition, the Spiral's small size creates a tight seal on your sensation-filled sausage, giving it a glorious vacuum sensation. We reckon, it feels like getting your thing blown...out of proportion. Granted, this baby may come at a pretty price and is only good for 50 uses, but trust on this one - it's one of the best sexy investments you'll ever make for your junk.

FOR HER

Saying "I love you" can also mean "I want you to enjoy yourself even if I'm not around." If your lady is the type who likes her clitoral stimulation together with her penetration, the Ina2 by LELO³ is the rabbit wand of choice for her. Its sleek design and smooth silicon exterior is what every huge vibrator aspires to be. The toy is designed to press on her G-spot, and the controls allow the user to make the stems vibrate together, or independently from each other. You can even take it into the bath for some quality me-time - much better with some scented candles and your favorite slow jams.

If your lady wants something more intense and precise, how about the JimmyJane Form 2⁴? The Form 2 is a dual-pronged squeeze toy that doubles the pleasure offered by average vibrators. Appearing like an inverted molar, this little cordless sweetheart packs quite the punch. Users can pick from five levels of intensity and four modes of vibration rhythm. Its design makes its vibrations very direct and precise; while some ladies may find it too intense, taking it underwater in a tub can provide a buffer for those who don't want it rough. Yes, this toy is waterproof.

FOR COUPLES

Adventurous experimental couples would certainly get a kick, and perhaps a surplus of shakes and shivers, with the We-Vibe⁵ toy. It comes as a tiny plastic C-string, which can elevate the art of lovemaking to a whole new level. One tiny end slips into her vulva while the other curves around to hug her clitoris. It makes for hands-free clitoral stimulation, which means your voyaging fingers are free to roam the most pleasurable lady parts.

Furthermore, the We-Vibe provides enough space for you to enter her, and applies some gentle pressure inside. The controls give you four levels of intensity, so feel free to switch it up to keep things exciting.

Butt Wait, There's More

Are you looking for something more adventurous? Do you dare to go where most men have never gone before? If you want to try getting your sexy on with some booty, the Njoy Pure Plug⁶ is the high-end choice for your rear end.

The butt plug is made of stainless medical-grade steel, is non-porous, and we daresay, a sight for sore eyes. The sleek, tapered design makes for comfortable insertion and retention, and the weight puts some delicious pressure on your prostate. We recommend using lube for a smoother fit. Once you're all set, get ready for some heated lovemaking as you scorch your way through the climax... of the holiday season.
