NEWS RELEASE

ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-SIX, POWER PLAYERS HONORED IN SAN DIEGO

The 2019 Urban League of San Diego County's Golden Pyramid Scholars Awards Celebration

San Diego, CA - The Urban League of San Diego County, in partnership with UC San Diego, hosted the 28th Annual Golden Pyramid Scholars Award Ceremony for 196 students, in grades 9th through 12th, who have maintained a cumulative 3.5 or higher grade point average. The event took place Sunday, May 19, 2019, 2:00 p.m., at UC San Diego's Price Center Ballroom. Rear Admiral Alvin Holsey, Commander, Carrier Strike Group ONE, U.S. Navy, keynote speaker, will made special remarks encouraging youth to explore math and science studies and careers.

Family members, friends, community leaders and board members attended to salute these student power players with high scholastics while community and academic leaders promoted a college going culture of academic success. The Urban League designed this program to identify, recruit, cultivate and support students who are striving to achieve academic and economic excellence. The college venue exposes students to a college campus and reinforces the perception of college as a viable and achievable option. "The Urban League of San Diego County understands that by openly acknowledging our youth in a public forum, we make it clear to them and the community that we believe in and support their achievements," said Ray King, President and CEO. "These young leaders are being honored because they demonstrate that 'Achievement Matters.' They are the building blocks of our community and our future leaders. In addition, it is not everyday our youth get a chance to hear a special message from a leaders like Rear Admiral Alvin Holsey and Chancellor Pradeep Khosla."

The Urban League also used the ceremony to celebrate students receiving college scholarships from Ashford University, U.S.S. Midway. We asked that you help us share a special thanks to UC San Diego and CALSOAP who hosted and partnered with us to plan this great occasion. The Mistress of Ceremony, Ebonee Williams, from UC San Diego, and Masters of Ceremony, Alex Presha, from NBC 7, moved the program along very smoothly with their professional expertise and humor.

Special thanks to all of the sponsors, not mentioned above, who also made the program possible such as Bank of America, Zeeda M. Daniele, Enterprise, National Urban League, San Diego Education Association, San Diego State University, San Diego City College, San Diego Education Association, San Diego Gas & Electric, National Naval Officer Association, and University of San Diego,.
