Fall Issue

Busy, Bustle and Changes of this New Season

This season, Vicuña will be busy with two Art shows that we will be preparing for. There is the Inclusion Art Show in Vancouver and our Annual Winter Art Show. There is art to make, framing and mounting art, art cards, sending out invitations, and so much more to do before the shows. The lead up to the shows are always full of excitement and during the show there are so many visitors to meet and greet.

This season, there will be some changes, as always some people come and go. We have had a few of our Artists leave the studio and some new students have joined or will be joining this fall. We will have two new instructors join Vicuña Studio, expanding some of the programs and making more available.

In October, I will be leaving Vicuña as I am moving away. Dhanha Lee, who has been our instructor for a year now, will be taking the position of Director.

I want to take this opportunity to say goodbye and thank all of the artists of Vicuña Studio and Ridge Meadows Association for community Living for allowing me to be a part of the most unique and inspiring place. To the artists, you have enriched my life tremendously and will always be grateful to have been part of your artistic endeavors. I have watched you progress and blossom and more importantly, be recognized as an artist not just in RMACL but within your own community. I will miss you all!
