Father Desmond, Father Bruce and Deacon John met for the first time this week as we begin the new chapter in the life and mission of St. Andrew's.

Although we have a few ideas ourselves, it is very important that we listen to the ideas of parishioners and try and introduce them if possible and if appropriate. As a team we shall, God willing, meet on a regular basis in the time ahead.

Some new initiatives for the coming weeks....

10.00am Mass from Monday to Saturday
Exposition of The Blessed Sacrament
Recitation of the Rosary

The introduction of new candle stands which comply with Health and Safety and are present in many Churches in the Diocese; the new candle stands will be actual candles but are safer than the free standing candles we have at the moment

Response:

O that today you would listen to his voice!
Harden not your hearts.

Thought for the week:

The world is a bridge, pass over it and build no house upon it. He who hopes for an hour may hope for eternity. The world is but an hour, spend it in devotion. The rest is nothing. Wisdom from India quoted in Father Willy Slavin's Memoir, Life is not a long quiet river, page 175...a wonderful read which has just been published.
