Nutritional snacks for finals snack giveaway

Dear Julie

I'm a student here and want to plan a finals snack giveaway. We'd be giving out snacks at 9 or 10 or so in the libraries to students studying for their finals.

I was wondering if you could offer some advice on snacks which would be practical (portable, somewhat cheap, easy to find individually packaged) that would be good to give out that would be a brain and energy boost and also nutritious? I want to avoid giving out "garbage" snacks at this giveaway.

Thanks so much in advance and have a great rest of your week!

Hi,

Great question!

Here are a few ideas: trail mix, raw nuts, dried fruits, raisin boxes, hummus individual servings with pita chips or bread, popcorn, graham crackers, cheese sticks, and yogurts.

Best of luck,
