

Not just all about us — supporting our local community too.

It's never too early to be planning for Christmas & New Year's Eve (is it?)

Whilst Selfridges were once again were the first department store in 2019 to open their Christmas Shop (in July!), the card shops have now also filled their shelves with festive cards!

The jury's out here on whether its too early - but we do know that if you are left to organising the works Christmas party, you want to be organised so that you can be sure it's in everyones diary.

Our 2019 Christmas & New Year's Eve brochure is now available including details of our "Being Good Banquet" for friends who would love a low-fat get together.

It's available in our restaurant & bar, or if you give us a call (01634 933123) we'll pop one in the post to you. And of course you can download it online: spicefusionkent.com/december-2019

We don't just deliver great curry

Even though we've been offering home delivery since the start of the year, we're still slightly shocked by the number of people that collect from us and say "we wish you delivered"!

And unlike most home delivery services, you can order wine, beers & ciders too from us.

We've made it really easy to order just tap on the Just Eat app and search for "Spice Fusion Kent"

On there you can order for both home delivery and for collection from the restaurant from 5pm every day.

Now serving "craft beer" on tap

We're proud to have introduced Cobra Malabar - a small batch IPA beer. This 4.7% ABV blond IPA has been crafted by Cobra's Master Brewers to be enjoyed with food.

The smooth yet complex recipe, gives a quality depth of taste with spicy, peppery notes. It's already manager Rajeev's favourite — come and try it and see if you agree!

Parkwood Shopping Precinct is full!

There's plenty of doom and gloom about retailers struggling to survive these days — but with our local precinct now full, it certainly seems Parkwood is bucking the trend!

The new bakery & cafe (owned and operated by Leysdown Bakery) is now open and getting rave reviews. If you've not tried their giant Eccles cakes then you've got a treat ahead in store.

Please support our local retailers (especially the independent businesses like us) — their success means that the whole area benefits from having a busy precinct.

Who knew there was so much to learn?

We were amazed (and impressed) to discover that Medway Council offers hundreds of Adult Education courses each year.

With centres in Gillingham and Rochester providing training and education including basic Maths & English, to more creative skills such as photography, fashion, textiles and needlecraft along with classes in art (including life drawing!) there is something for every eager mind.

Many of the very reasonably priced courses begin this month — you can discover more at www.medway.gov.uk/mae

Book early for New Year's Eve!

For the past few years we've been hosting a (now legendary) New Year's Eve party at Spice Fusion. An all-inclusive event of great food, drink and entertainment which last year sold-out at the beginning of December.

By popular demand we have booked Paul Cantara once again. His "Legends" cabaret is brilliant — with people up singing and dancing after dinner until well past midnight!
