ABOUT HELP Foundation

HELP (Health Empowerment by a Loving People) Foundation is a health and humanitarian organization founded in 2016. The organization started with an idea from the founding president/CEO whose professional and academic experience made him see the need of health promotion and education in ensuring holistic health and wellbeing to our communities.

The foundation draws knowledge from the iceberg concept of diseases, and primary prevention as the only cost effective strategy to prevent and manage diseases and control disease-related determinants.

We believe that working together with others in bringing this knowledge to the populations is the only effective way to economically empower every society, considering that people are able to have full control over their health by successfully controlling those factors (at the primary level) that produce favorable grounds for diseases to establish.
