

YOUR GUIDE TO FUSHIMI INARI SHRINE

The famous shrine of a thousand torii gates

Fushimi Inari Taisha is one of the most famous shrines in Japan.

It is known worldwide for its thousands of bright red torii gates that form scenic pathways through the forested mountain.

The shrine is dedicated to Inari, the Shinto god of rice and prosperity.

EXPLORE THE TORII PATHS

The torii gates create a beautiful tunnel that leads up Mount Inari.

Walking the full trail to the summit takes about 2 hours, but visitors can enjoy shorter walks and still experience the iconic scenery.

Along the path you will also find small shrines and fox statues, which are considered messengers of Inari.
