

We warmly invite you to participate in

Tough Talking, Purposeful Listening:
The Middle East Conflict and Community Relations

On Monday 23rd September
Westminster, London

10.00 am – 3 pm

A symposium to discuss how the conflict in Israel and Palestine reflects in the communities we live in here in the UK

Introduced by Hardip Begol, Director Integration and Communities, Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government

Keynote speaker: Dr George Wilkes,
Director, Project on Religion and Ethics in the Making of War and Peace,
University of Edinburgh

Other participants in the panels and workshops include Revd Dr Richard Sudworth, Akeela Ahmed, Rabbi David Mason, Dilwar Hussein and Solutions Not Sides

Topics include: 'How extreme politics threatens Interfaith Dialogue'; 'Doing dialogue better on Israel/Palestine' and 'Engaging young people in advancing the solutions'

A vegetarian sandwich lunch will be provided.
This is a free event, but you will need to register to secure a place.

Contact: admin@fodip.org.uk