It was a bittersweet moment for me when I found out that I had been selected for the Sakura Science Exchange programme, a Robotics and IoT workshop in Japan. A fully-funded opportunity of a lifetime. Fly off to Saitama without a care on the world, and all I had to do was put into practice what I love to do - computer science. The bitter part of the episode - that I would lose two weeks of IB education, an almost literal mountain to cover when I got back - was quickly forgotten when I envisioned myself programming robots in the country that gave us Anime and sushi! It was with the eagerness to have an extended vacation in an un-visited land, and the opportunity to learn more about a subject that I am passionate about, that I headed to the Kempegowda International Airport outside Bengaluru. Little did I know this would be the experience of a lifetime, more for the endearing values of the Japanese culture that made their mark on me than anything else. The first feature of Japanese society that called out to me was the Discipline. Walking into the Narita International Airport, used as I was to the noisy crowds back in India, I quite literally lost my breath to the sight that awaited me. Be it the security check or baggage claim, somehow there was a silence that felt right. Everyone went about their activities without any confusion. And, contrary to the bharatiya custom of lazy pot-bellied officials, every guard and all counter personnel did what they were supposed to do-to ensure this flow was maintained.

21. What was it that the writer did not like about his trip to Japan?

- (1) ~~That the trip was so short~~
- (2) ~~That he would be compelled to eat sushi~~
- ☒ (3) That he would miss a fortnight worth of IB education
- (4) ~~That Japanese people are too disciplined~~

22. What did the writer notice when he arrived at Narita International Airport?

- (1) The bags arriving on time in baggage claim
- (2) The cleanliness
- (3) That there was no security check
- (4) The silence

23. Why was the writer travelling to Japan?

- (1) ~~On a holiday~~
- (2) ~~For two weeks of IB education~~
- (3) ~~For employment~~
- (4) To attend a robotics workshop

24. What aspect of Japanese culture left a mark on the writer?

- (1) ~~Their cuisine~~
- (2) ~~Their unity~~
- (3) ~~Their health consciousness~~
- (4) Their values

25. Which country is credited for producing Anime?

(1) India

~~(2) Japan~~

(3) China

(4) USA
