"Jee Leong Koh's poems dance like drops of oil in a hot skillet. Formally playful yet rooted in the high moral stakes of race and sex, Connor & Seal is a timely reminder that history is made with bodies as much as it's made on them."

—DALE PECK, author of Night Soil and What Burns

"Connor & Seal is an oddly erotic book that imagines a dim future in which violence is the expectation. And yet, it is still a future where two men—despite every obstacle—still can fall in love. Jee Leong Koh finds new and fruitful use for the quatrain in this brilliant and brilliantly grounded volume."

—JERICHO BROWN, author of The Tradition
