TO ALL HENLEY SUPPORTERS & MEMBERS

The Committee of the Henley Football Club is currently exploring a proposal to assess the feasibility of establishing a Netball Club potentially operating under the banner of the Henley Sharks FC.

Following an approach from persons well connected with netball it came to our attention that many young 'want to be netballers' in our area are missing out because demand currently exceeds available player vacancies. The Committee is prepared to explore if this void can be addressed.

To this end, a small group of women, experienced in the world of netball are working up the proposal and will report regularly to the Committee on progress made. In turn, the Committee will continue to keep our Members up to date.

While no commitment has been made by the HFC beyond this exploration phase of the proposal for Henley Sharks Netball, it is a matter that ultimately may need to be determined by our Club.

This could ultimately be a positive outcome for the HFC and our broader community but for now, it remains a work in progress.

While this is still in the proposal and investigation phase, feedback from interested persons will always be welcome and can be forwarded via email to admin@henleysharks.com.au

Regards,
Paul Caica
HFC President

LEADING EDGE PHYSICAL THERAPY

So it was halfway through the first quarter and you're playing a great game. You've already had 10 possessions and have put two goals on the the scoreboard for your team.

Then, during a contest you're opponent lands on you, driving there knee into the front of your thigh! As you stand up, you struggle to put weight through your leg and your helped off the field by the team trainer. You have been told that you have got a corked thigh, contusion or a 'corkie'.

SO WHAT DO YOU DO NOW?

During The Game:

It will depend on the severity of the contusion as to whether you will be able to continue playing. According to Sports Medicine Australia there are three grades of corkie. With a grade one or two contusion you may be able to continue playing. Some things that may help are:

- Applying compression – ask your sports trainer or club physiotherapist to provide you with some tubigrip or to strap the thigh up with some compression bandage. You may also benefit from having them place some padding over the area to prevent it from being re-injured.
- Keep moving! – to prevent it from getting stiff you will benefit from keeping the thigh moving. Jump on the stationary bike and lightly pedal or walk up and down the sidelines.
- DON'T Massage it or use Heat – You may think that this is a good idea at this stage but massage will only increase blood flow to the area which will increase bleeding.

Post – Game Management:

Corkies are not a fun injury. If you sustain a grade three contusion it can prevent some people from returning to play for a minimum of up to 8 weeks! That's nearly half a season!

There is also the risk after a quadriceps contusion of developing myositis ossificans which is where the contusion calcifies forming bone in your muscle. There are some great steps that you can take to limit your time off the field and improve your recovery.

- ICE! – the most important thing you can do post match for your corkie! Ice will restrict blood flow to the area thus limiting bleeding. When we say ice we mean more than once after the game! You should be looking to ice the contusion for 15-20 minutes every hour for the next 48 hours with the first 24 hours being the most critical period. Ensure there is a towel or paper towel between your skin and the ice to prevent damage to your skin.
- Compression – Ask the trainer for some tubigrip after the game or if this isn't available put on your compression tights. Compression allows increased venous return of the blood which will help with bleeding.
- Elevation – Keep the leg up as much as possible- this too will help with blood return away from the site of the contusion.
- Alcohol – Stay off of the beers! Although tempting, alcohol causes an increase in blood-flow to the area and consequently more bleeding to the corkie site. Have a softie instead! This may be the difference between you playing or not playing the next week.
- Don't 'massage' a corkie out – Although massage can be beneficial it shouldn't be started until at least 72 hours post injury. Ensure that the massage isn't too vigorous as this can increase the risk of the re-bleeding or the contusion calcifying.
- Speak to a Physio – Physios are well trained in assessing and managing this type of presentation. They can provide you with the correct treatment and exercises to ensure you spend as little time off the field as possible and are fit when you return. With a thorough examination they are also able to determine if further assessment or investigations are warranted and refer you on to the correct medical professionals.

Henley Sharks players sustaining a "Corkie" can talk to our physio Nic Brown at training on Tuesdays, or attend our Monday night injury clinic at our Western Hospital rooms (ph 8159 1300) from 5pm on a Monday to get your "Corkie" assessed and a management plan put in place.

A GRADE MATCH REPORT

JARRAD PARKER ROUND 7 V ATHELSTONE

HENLEY: 9.7 - 61
ATHELSTONE: 8.10 - 58

Athelstone are not one of our traditional rivals but after some close games last year, and both coming off of heavy losses the week before, this was building to be another and it didn't disappoint.

We had the aid of the wind in the first and couldn't have asked for a better start as Lane, Gray and Enright got the clearance and found the first of Brett Ebert's many Forward 50 marks. His kick landed in the hands of Harris Jessen and we were away inside of a minute. Our intensity around the football was up and we were getting a good balance between fast and slow play, as we successfully moved the football out of defence and through the middle. A highlight for the quarter was Jackson Smith kicking his first A Grade goal and all of the boys getting around him. We only made a couple of errors in the back half of the ground but unfortunately Athelstone made us pay for these, kicking two goals for the quarter and giving them some confidence. But Brett Ebert also kicked two late goals allowing us to be ahead at the first change.

The second quarter was a tight tussle as both teams struggled to take advantage of their forward entries. Again, the experience of Scott Berry and Jeremy Johncock was shining through and they were ably supported by Damien Cardone who was showing a calm head with the football. In the middle Corey Gray and Jack Enright were exceptional in tight situations, Travis Lane was showing his class and on the outside Ben Lodge and Cody Hicks were again providing a good avenue forward. Two late goals to Athelstone and one for us to James Lean and we went into the long break ahead by 4 points.

One area of our game that is letting us down is our third quarters and when Kyle Dalidowicz kicked a goal inside the first 30 seconds I thought we may have overcome this. But the next 10 minutes of the quarter belonged to Athelstone as we lost a bit of our defensive discipline and they took advantage kicking 3 goals into the breeze. A few minor injuries through the quarter meant we had to make a few adjustments which threw the team out a bit and at times it felt like we were just hanging in there. Jackson Smith kicked another goal and we went into the last change only 3 points behind but with it all to do in the last into the breeze.

At the start of the game we spoke about the need to win more 50/50 contests. Michael Gautesen went into the middle in the last quarter and as all good Captains do, set the standard for others to follow. Tom Thunig did exactly that and probably had the most influential quarter of football he has had for the football club. Mostly known for his speed on the outside of the contest Tom was throwing himself at everything and willing the team across the line. Ben Lodge was putting on a one hand marking masterclass, Cody Hicks was getting some important forward 50 entries while Brett Ebert was showing his class taking two important marks and converting them into goals. With about 6 minutes to play Athelstone got a goal back but determined not to give in, the players held their nerve and finished off a satisfying and important win for our season.

We are not playing perfect football by any stretch of the imagination, but I feel as though we are on the improve and more importantly getting a better understanding of playing together. On the weekend we welcomed a few players back and should regain the services of Lee Staple and Jamie Grosser this week. It will be a tough task at Pertaringa Oval but go there looking forward to the challenge.

Goal Kickers: B. Ebert 4, J. Smith 2, J. Lean, K. Dalidowicz, H. Jessen

Best Players: T. Thunig, B. Ebert, B. Lodge, D. Cardone, S. Berry, J. Johncock

ROUND 8 V TEA TREE GULLY

HENLEY: 9.3-57

TEA TREE GULLY: 12.15-87

We headed out to Tea Tree Gully knowing that it was going to be a big test, they were in good form but we also believe that our best football can match it with all sides in Division 1.

We made a great start to the game as we kicked the first two goals through a set shot from Lee Staple and a soccer from the goal square from Tom Thunig. But as the quarter wore on Tea Tree Gully began moving the ball well and started to find the dangerous Troy Menzel in space up forward. We still had plenty of the ball ourselves but we were kicking down the line too much and because our players were trying to spread for the switch, we were outnumbered at ground level along the half forward line which allowed Tea Tree Gully to return the football to their forward line. We were fortunate that Tea Tree Gully were missing some opportunities, albeit from tough angles, which meant we went into quarter time down by 6 points. Unfortunately we lost Jake Hyland to a knee injury during the quarter too which meant a bit of a re-shuffle.

Our run of poor second quarters continued as Tea Tree Gully got the ascendancy in the middle. They were spreading from the contest better than we were and linking up well with handballs which allowed them to get many forward 50 entries. There were times that we fought hard around the contest, led by Corey Gray and Jack Enright we were forcing repeat stoppages but were unable to win any clean football. Tea Tree Gully kicked 4 goals for the quarter but it could have been more if not for the dogged efforts of Jeremy Johncock, Scott Berry and Michael Gautesen. To compound the problem we also lost Lee Staple to a knee injury during the quarter which meant we went into half time with all the work to do and 19 players to do it with.

For the first 10 minutes of the third quarter Tea Tree Gully continued their ascendancy all over the ground but as the quarter wore on I felt we started controlling and using the football better. Harris Jessen was starting to realise his strength in the ruck contest and giving our mids a bit more first use of the football. Travis Lane kicked a great goal from the pocket and a running team goal from half back saw us get a bit of confidence back. Even though Tea Tree Gully kicked 3 goals for the quarter I felt the longer the quarter went, the more confident we became in our ability to win the football.

In the last we went all out attack and the players were encouraged to get the ball going forward at all opportunities. Travis Lane was brought up from the forward lines to play as an extra midfielder and his smarts allowed him to become our main avenue forward, as well as getting deep to kick two goals himself, one of which is an early contender for goal of the year. Harris Jessen was punching the ball out of the ruck contest with one of them literally hitting the forward 50 metre arc from the centre.

10 minutes into the quarter, we had kicked a few quick goals and felt as though we had the momentum. One of their players was injured and was slowly making his way off of the ground under his own steam but with a trainer, Tea Tree Gully replaced him too early with a player coming onto the ground before the injured player was off and the umpires resumed the game. The player that had replaced him was around the contest when it was restarted and we felt this was advantageous to the opposition when it shouldn't have been, after a subsequent stoppage we alerted the umpire to this fact, because even by then the injured player still wasn't off the field. This resulted in a head count which in turn resulted in a 50 metre penalty being awarded to us, from which we kicked a goal. The game continued on and we had another opportunity to kick a goal shortly after which would have put us within 11 points. Unfortunately we missed and Tea Tree Gully got a couple of late goals which meant the result went back out to 5 goals. This margin wasn't representative of our effort in the last quarter but was of the whole game. The lads should be proud of their effort in the second half playing with 19 fit men, but we still need to address our inconsistency throughout games.

As for the 19 Tea Tree Gully players on the ground, it is our position that the 50 m penalty was punishment reflective of the offending, we do not intend on pursuing this any further and we have communicated this to both Tea Tree Gully and the league. We are a good enough side to win on our own merits.

C GRADE MATCH REPORT

CHRIS BROWN ROUND 7 V ATHELSTONE

HENLEY: 22.17 - 149

ATHELSTONE: 1.3 - 9

The rivalry with Athelstone that has developed in the C's over the last 3 seasons stems a little from them following Henley through the various divisions but primarily because they are always tough contests with no quarter given.

Round 7 was expected to be the same and when Athelstone kicked the first goal it was reasonable to assume this game would be another tough tussle. It was short lived though as Henley kicked the next 22 goals while holding Athelstone goal less and finishing 22.17 (149) to 1.3 (9)

Henley as a football club was again tested for depth this week with players from all grades missing for various reasons and no players left to call on. This included two players debuting for 2018, Kurtis Cox made his return and Jed Castley played his first game for Henley. Jed works in Roxby Downs on a FI/FO roster and will play when available. He is a big bodied mid fielder with clean skills and is a great asset to The Sharks. Moves by HFC to have him retrenched from Roxby, to speed up his return to Adelaide, have commenced but it's early days ...

The highlight of this game was the standout performance of Luke 'Silk' Wilksch in what was possibly his best game for the Sharks. His many touches off the half back flank were all clean and damaging and when he wasn't kicking his own goals he was setting up the forwards. The whole back line was dominant all day and converted on the scoreboard as well as holding the opposition goal less for three quarters. Josh Ettridge, Ryan Fry, Will Haskard, Dylan Thomas, Jack Neilson and Sam Skinner (until a sniper took out his hamstring) played the type of 'willing to help out', solid defence that is needed at the pointy end of the season.

With a score line like this the forwards will always figure prominently but the mids and wingers deserve recognition. Bingham, Butterfield, Hoogmoed, Meiers, Haddock, the Egel brothers, Castley, Kitto and Ashton consistently won the 50/50 contests and sent it forward while often converting on the score board themselves.

The last piece of the puzzle in this score line was the hard working forwards. Brad 'Wheels' Carey's pace has not been stopped by an opposing team yet this season and this game was no different. Mathew 'Ted' Pierson, Dave 'Hooker' Loveder, Shayne Hoogmoed, Corey 'Chop' Battersby and Kurtis 'don't turn your back on me' Cox all worked hard and had the defence scratching their heads on how to shut them down.

Overall a great team performance and despite many changes each week there is a sense the 'team' aspect needed for success is developing and the lads are gelling.

Goal Scorers: Brad Carey 6, Harley Egel 2, Cody Egel 2, Shayne Hoogmoed 2, Mathew Pierson 2, Tom Bingham 2, Ryan Fry 1, Nick Meiers 1, Blake Deussen 1, Corey Battersby 1, Luke Wilksch 1, Jordan Kitto 1

Best Players: Luke Wilksch, Tom Bingham, Jordan Kitto, Dan Wilksch, Josh Ettridge, Will Haskard, Brad Carey.

THE HITCH REPORT – O35s

The Grey Sharks played host to a very under aged Phantoms side. In under 8's terminology football was the winner last night. The Saturday night lights never fails to draw a crowd. Starting with ten on the bench, it wasn't long before broad technician Kitey was handling the magnets to an injured Blurter, who was on red card watch at the start of the game. Highlights of the game were few and far between.

Chris Page's silk run to finish with a goal was one. However after the game some strange things happen when the blinds go down at Shark Park. There was some random nudity, thanks Boomer and Adam, Im still trying to get the images out off my mind. The other thing I can't get out my head is seeing Willow and Blurter in a steam filled change rooms long after all other players had gone to the bar.

Adam Bray was in fine form dressed exclusively by himself, his partner Kylie was taking no responsibility for his the future so bright my pussy has to wear shades tee shirt and jandles.

Wisey was looking very happy with his partner, carrying on like a couple of love sick teenagers.

Thanks to Thomas, Liam, Aydan and Chase who ran water to some very thirsty athletes. A large contingent of PHOS players stayed after the game to a couple of beers and pizza.

Our club sponsor Rubens Pizza supplied 25 pizzas which were hoovered in record time, last time I saw food consumed that quick was when Boomer inhaled a chicken party on Thursday night after training.

Massive shout out to our man Bolts, who single handedly ran the bar for 60 elite athletes and 30 hot WAGS. Also thank you to no 50's please, team manager and Lisa for her strapping skills.
