OREGON TITLE IX LEGISLATION

“The 80th Oregon Legislative Assembly is coming to a close, and Oregon legislators have been hard at work creating policy to bolster Oregon’s Title IX response and prevention systems. This resource provides institutions of higher education and K-12 school districts with a brief overview of key legislation.”

HIGHER EDUCATION: HOUSE BILL 3415

Requires institutions of higher education to both adopt written policies and require certain individuals to participate in annual training on sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. Establishes required content for policies and training.

WHAT THE BILL DOES:

- ▶ Establishes a definition for sexual harassment
- ▶ Clarifies institutional notice and initial response to disclosures
- ▶ Outlines parameters to institutional jurisdictional statements
- ▶ Builds upon pre-existing requirements for policy dissemination
- ▶ Establishes training requirements for Title IX Coordinators, hearing officers, process advisors, investigators and campus security officers

THIS BILL GOES INTO EFFECT STARTING THE 2020-2021
ACADEMIC YEAR

K-12 SCHOOLS: HOUSE BILL 3077

Modifies processes relating to reporting, investigating and appealing findings related to sexual harassment in K-12 schools.

WHAT THE BILL DOES:

- ▶ Outlines policy to be adopted by school districts relating to students and staff
- ▶ Defines prohibited conduct including sexual assault and harassment
- ▶ Builds upon existing reporting requirements and response to disclosures
- ▶ Clarifies district responsibilities in relation to investigations and safety planning

THIS BILL GOES INTO EFFECT
JULY 1, 2020
