

Competition Safety

Made by Team 2704

Injury Reporting Requirement

- Receive necessary medical treatment.
- Report all injuries to the Pit Administration Supervisor. He or she will document the injury on a Medical Incident Report Form that will be available at Pit Administration.

Staying Together

- Children under 12 years old must be accompanied by an adult at all times
- Use the buddy system

Know Your Surroundings

- Identify the location of all exits for evacuation in case of a fire.
- Pay attention when walking through the pits as teams will be transporting their robots.

Pit Safety

PPE (Personal Protective Equipment)

- Safety glasses are required everywhere in the Pit area.
- Substantial shoes that completely cover the entire foot are required inside the Pit area. Lightweight shoes should not be worn to a competition.

Inside the Pit

- Make sure that the pit is never crowded, ideally containing six or less people at a time.
- Clean the pit periodically.

Robot Repairs

- Turn the robot completely off before working on it.
- Wear the appropriate Personal Protective Equipment (close toed shoes, no baggy clothing, hair tied back, no jewelry, gloves/ear protection when necessary, long pants, safety glasses)

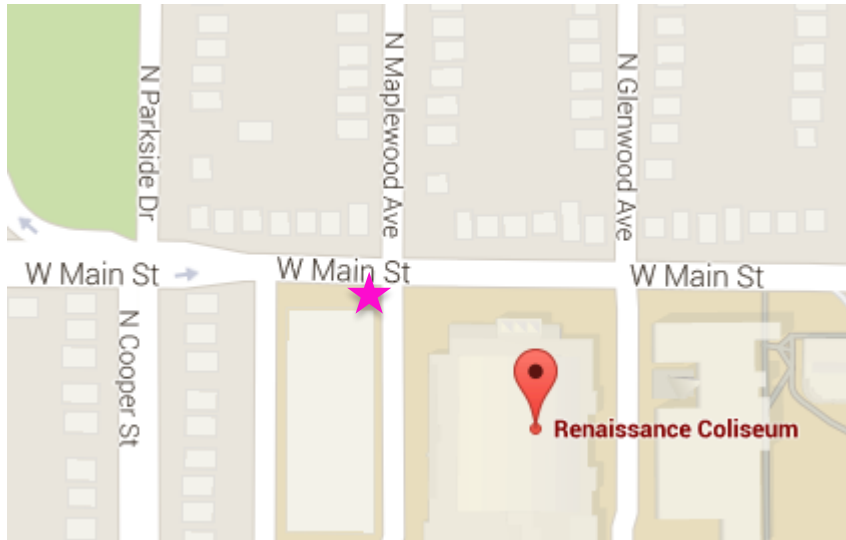

Robot Transport

Lifting and Moving

- Use proper lifting techniques that include
 - Wearing gloves
 - Having at least two team members lifting
 - Communication between those lifting
 - Having the robot cart ready if planning to transport the robot long distances
 - Keeping you core tight
 - Lifting with your legs instead of your back
 - Not twisting your body
- Clear a path for you robot when transporting it through the pit aisles.

Emergency Meeting Places

Emergency Meeting Place for Central Illinois Regional
