Dear Mr. President,

I write regarding U.S. Army Lieutenant Clint Lorange. He was convicted in 2013 and is serving a 19 year sentence for orders given and actions taken while on the battleground in Afghanistan. I respectfully request that you would order an evaluation of the case and the evidence. This review would seek to verify if the findings justified his conviction and/or given the circumstances, if his leniency is in order.

As you might guess, his family is very concerned and seeks his release. They would also like the knowledge that his case was given all due consideration.

Respectfully,

Bill Cassidy, MD
United States Senator
