

Cienega Creek

This hidden spot is full of gorgeous autumn leaves in the fall and beautiful greenery in the spring and summer! This place is a great escape from the traditional Tucson landscape. in exchange for something green & lush! There is a brief hike 15 minute hike to get to the location, but it will not come from the session time. A free hiking permit is also required which can be applied for here.

Accessibility

Crowding

Available Times

Pet-Friendly: Yes

Bathrooms: No

Outfit Advice

Recommended colors: maroon, navy, denim, rust, olive & mustard
Layers and accessories will add visual interest.

Walking shoes are recommended, feel free to bring another pair to change into.

Directions

Search "Zimmerman Trailhead" in your map service, and it will give you the correct directions!

Head east on I-10 from Tucson and take exit 281. Turn left to cross the interstate and then a right onto Marsh Station Rd. Continue for 3 miles and the trailhead will be on the left.

Parking is free with the hiking permit shown above.