

The Quilt Basket's Journal

An embroidered quilt wall hanging with a winter theme. It features Santa Claus in a red suit with white trim and a green sack, standing next to a reindeer with large antlers and a red harness. They are in a snowy landscape with a church and houses in the background under a starry night sky. The entire scene is composed of various quilt blocks.

News Briefs

- Visit Us Online!

The Quilt Basket is now online with a new website at www.thequiltbasket.net which features our story, services, and up-to-date class and events schedules.

- Its Party Time!

It is that time of the year when holiday gatherings are the norm. The Quilt Basket will be hosting a Holiday Open House on December 21, 2019 at 10:00 am through 2:00 pm. Wear your holiday "Ugly Sweater" to receive a 20% discount on your purchases for that day (excluding Sewing, Sergers, and Embroidery Machines & Modules). This discount cannot be combined with any other discount, sale, or promotion Refreshments will be provided. A winner will be selected as having the "ugliest" sweater and will be announced on Monday, December 23rd on our Facebook page. Beware! Photos will be taken.

- A New Year with A New Class Series On the Horizon!

Beginning in January, 2020, The Quilt Basket will offer a Bag-of-the-Month series of classes. Each month we will feature a bag pattern and offer a class to complete the bag. The class will be held on the second Friday of the month from 10am - 4pm and the cost for each session will be $20.00 plus the cost of the pattern and supplies.

As always, attendees will receive a 15% discount on all class supplies (not to be combined with any other discount, offer, promotion, or sale).

January 10, 2020's featured bag will be the Tahoe Tote, by Pink Sand Beach Designs. This class is taught by Susan Bellamy.
