About UCHC

The United Community Housing Coalition (UCHC) is a nonprofit comprehensive housing assistance organization, which has provided a variety of housing-related services to Detroit’s low-income residents since 1973.

UCHC works with tenants, homesteaders, homeowners and people experiencing homelessness, fighting for everyone’s right to have a safe and affordable residence for themselves and their families. Additionally, we advocate alongside housing, religious, civil rights, labor and advocacy organizations to preserve, improve and expand affordable housing opportunities for low-income Detroiter.

Because of its long history and significant expertise as a comprehensive housing services provider in Michigan, UCHC is frequently asked to provide advice to other organizations in communities across Southeast Michigan.

All services are provided to income-eligible families and individuals free of charge.

“Was I always going to be here? No I was not. I was going to be homeless at one time, a taxi driver, truck driver, or any kind of job that would get me a crust of bread. You never know what’s going to happen.” -- Morgan Freeman

For several weeks, millions of people have said that they “couldn’t wait until November 9th.” We doubted that they were talking about the UCHC 42nd Annual Meeting. But, wouldn’t it have been nice if that had been the reason? As I write, it is not yet November 8th. The NY Times has Clinton at about 85% likely to win, but until the votes are in and counted, nothing has been decided. Even beyond the presidency are questions about how the U.S. and Michigan Senate and House will look for next year. If there is a Jim Jones Kool Aid stand here tonight, you will know it did not go well.

While most of us would agree that this is an election year that we are glad to see end, the reality is that the real work is only now beginning. What is needed if the 15%’er pulls off the upset of the century is beyond imagination right now. But, if Clinton wins as expected, there is also no time to relax.

Learning little from the election this year, some have already called for investigations, impeachment, and permanently blocking any appointments to the U.S. Supreme Court. So much for letting the voters decide. Will the next four years be gridlock at the national level or compromise for the sake of “doing something”, that is worse than doing nothing? Those should not be the only options, but far too often they have been. There is a need for progressives to fight the radical right agenda, but there is also a need to push Clinton and others to not cave. The roots of modern day homelessness can be traced to the “Welfare Reform” legislation President Clinton and Speaker Gingrich reached in a compromise in the ’90s. It has since been something they both proudly tout. Sadly, welfare deform was not the only compromise that left lasting impacts on the poor.

Beyond the national agenda there remain many local issues. Next year we will face 52,000 tax foreclosures. Legislation languishes in committee in Lansing to extend the interest rate reduction law and to allow for the poverty tax exemption to be retroactive. Both measures could save thousands of homes. A new team in the Wayne County Treasurer’s office likewise could take action, or not, to save thousands of homes. Which route will they take? The Detroit Land Bank Authority still owns nearly 25% percent of the entire city. Will it finally take steps to make more of its inventory available to potential homeowners? In UCHC’s tax work, we encountered hundreds of persons with water shut-offs or pending shut-offs that could not get service because they lived in tax foreclosed homes. If forced to move, many of these homes would be vandalized and destroyed and of no benefit to anyone. Some with multiple months without water still have no resolution in sight. And, I could go on.

The point is that while we collectively fight at a national and state level to improve conditions for our city and our neighborhoods, there is much we need to do right here, right now. As we celebrate our 42nd year tonight, we do so knowing that the work we do is not done and is more needed than ever. Thank you for your support to continue the fight.

Peace,

Ted Phillips

How You Can Help...

A tax deductible donation of any amount is always appreciated. Donations can be for operational support or specifically designed for a particular project. For more information on making a donation, or to discuss how your donation could be used, please contact us at supportus@uchcdetroit.org or visit www.uchcdetroit.org.

Also, please keep UCHC in mind during the upcoming holidays. Our annual family gift bags and food baskets will go out to many client families again this year. We need donations to fill those baskets with items like non-perishable foods or grocery store certificates. We will also need volunteers to help wrap presents.
