

Workshop on ‘Improving Professional Licensure in APEC - Summary of Case Studies of Architecture and Engineering in Peru and Chile’

Friday 1 March 2019

Venue: Intercontinental Hotel, Santiago, Chile

AGENDA

- 9.00 – 9.15 Welcome remarks
Robert Fergusson, Australian Ambassador to Chile and Ecuador
- 9.15 – 10.15 Session 1: Overview of the research case studies (Chile & Peru) – scope, stakeholders consulted, methodology

Presentation by Ben Shepherd (Facilitator)
Q&A
- 10.15 – 10.45 Group Photo & Morning tea
- 10.45 – 11.45 Session 2: An Australian experience in Engineering and Architecture Professional Licensing

Presentation by Kate Doyle (Architects Accreditation Council of Australia) and Glen Crawley (Engineers Australia)
Q&A
- 11.45 – 12.45 Session 3: Key findings from the case studies and areas for improvement

Led by: Ben Shepherd (Facilitator) and representatives from Chile and Peru
Q&A
- 12.45 – 1.45 Lunch
- 1.45 – 3.00 Session 4: Links between recognition of qualifications and professional mobility – gaps and opportunities to facilitate professional services in APEC

Led by Ben Shepherd (Facilitator); Presentation by Angel Calderon, (RMIT University); Discussion with speakers from Sessions 2 and 5
Q&A
- 3.00 – 3.30 Afternoon tea

3.30 - 4.30 Session 5: Analysing the regulatory environment for professional services
– the OECD STRI

Presentation and policy simulation exercise in key professional services sectors by Janos Ferencz (OECD)
Q&A

4.30- 4.45 Closing remarks
Sergio Contreras, College of Engineers, Chile