Worship Notes

"Philosophy of Worship Principles" (Parts 6-7) by Dr. Tom Rush

6. Proper worship should be a time of celebration, inspiration, and edification. The Bible says we are to "Make a joyful shout to the Lord, ... to come before His presence with singing, to know that Lord, He is God, to enter His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise, ... to be thankful to Him, and bless His name" (Psalm 100). This is celebration, we should be glad to go to the house of the Lord to worship (Psalm 122:1). God is worthy to be praised and it is a privilege for His saints to bow before Him in adoration and praise. Although worship is all about God, it will benefit us and cause us to grow in our love for Him and one another. This is inspiration – true worship should inspire us to greater love for the Lord and each other and to new heights of service (Romans 12:1-2). And, though worship is about God and not us, true worship should build up believers in both mind and heart, "until we all attain the unity of the faith, and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man" (Ephesians 4:11-13). This is edification, being built up into a mature believer in Christ.

7. Proper worship is more than corporate worship on Sunday. As believers in Christ, we are not to neglect the Lord's Day worship gatherings of our local church (Hebrews 10:24-25). However, true worship must become a daily habit. We are to give our entire lives over to God as a living and holy sacrifice (Romans 12:1-2). That means we should worship God in every aspect of our lives, every single day of our lives. This type of daily walk with the Lord will surely enhance the public worship of any church, if the members are inclined to walk daily with the Lord in the spirit of holiness.

Message From Melba
Thank you for supporting our outreach efforts to Sonny Carter, Woodfield, Heritage and Springdale. We have another outreach opportunity on Thursday, October 3 at Sonny Carter. They have invited TBC to participate in their Fall Festival. We will take one of our games with candy and prizes and church information to the school from 5 pm to 7 pm.
We will also reach out to the community on Thursday, October 31 by hosting our own Fall Festival.
I would ask you to do three things for me as the children’s department leads out on these outreach opportunities.
1. Pray
2. Donate candy
3. Sign up to help
Thanks for partnering with us to reach our community for Christ.
