

This week has been a quieter week for us, the Transition Team, as we did not meet due to scheduling conflicts. Pastor Eric Hulstrand started the weekend of listening today and will continue to meet with people all day Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. In an effort to make sure everyone who desires to meet with Pastor Eric has the opportunity to do so, we have added one more listening day next weekend, Saturday, September 14th. If history is any indication, these slots have been filling up quickly, so if you have not been able to meet with him, be sure to go to the church website (lifeonline.church) and register as soon as you can.

Along with the addition of one more day for Pastor Eric to meet with those who desire, he requested to move the Observations and Recommendations Weekend out one week to September 20th - 22nd. He stated his reasoning for this is that he would prefer more time to process the more than 200 surveys he has received as well as the information he gathers during the listening weekends. His desire is that this would allow him more time to adequately prepare his observations and recommendations to be presented to the congregation September 20th - 22nd. We support his plan and want to honor his request, so please make this adjustment to the original timeline laid out for you in a previous update. Thank you for your patience and flexibility during this process.

That's it for this week. Please continue to join us in prayer regarding the interim pastor search. We will update you more on that next week.

Please subscribe and check back for ongoing updates in the coming weeks and months. We love you, Church!
