

Dear valued customers;

Panasonic Semiconductor Solutions Co., Ltd

Notice and Request for Transferring a part of Discrete Semiconductor Business

As we, Panasonic Semiconductor Solutions Co., Ltd. (PSCS) have announced in the press release issued on April 23rd, transferring a part of our discrete semiconductor business to ROHM has been approved by the appropriate authorities of Japan.

We would like to inform you of this topic and also about upcoming schedule. Please confirm.

1. Effective date of the discrete business transfer

(*Changed from the original announced schedule)

December 1st, 2019 (originally planned as October 31st, 2019)

2. Affected products

-Diode (Schottky diode, TVS diode, Zener diode, Switching diode, Fast Recovery diode)

-Small signal Transistors except of MOSFET (Bipolar transistor, Transistor with built-in resistors, Junction Field Effect Transistor)

3. Correspondence Before and After Business Transfer

(1) Product Supply

- Even after business transfer, Panasonic will supply the same products exclusively to ROHM as the sub-contractor for a certain period until ROHM establishes the production system in ROHM, and part numbers remain unchanged.
- There will be no change in the production sites and materials for the current products,
- Not later than March.2022, our contract manufacturing of these items will be closed and ROHM may eventually propose to switch over to equivalent products. Please refer to the proposal from ROHM for detail.

(2) Ordering

- Panasonic will be responsible to deliver the products until the end of November, so please place orders to Panasonic as usual. As for the orders from December 2019, ROHM will support your orders. Please contact ROHM for the ordering procedures.

(3) Transaction of Terms and Contracts

Terms and conditions including contract prices and contracts will not be transferred. After the authority approval, terms and conditions of supply from ROHM need to be newly agreed between customer and ROHM.

After July 22nd, ROHM is planned to contact you to discuss terms & conditions after business transfer. If you do not know your contact window of ROHM, please contact us.
