Now you can book a private consulting session (with me) in just some easy steps...

Having questions about booking gigs, promoting yourself to festivals and programming directors? Wish you could have a talk with someone with a fair experience in the world music/folk trad circuit?

If you're looking for a one-to-one session to ask questions that pertain to your specific goals and want to get a new perspective, I'm here to give you assistance.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

1. Your first step is to send me an email at music4you.net@gmail.com (object: one-to-one session) introducing your project and telling me what is the issue. I'll answer you and tell you if I can be of any assistance. I do speak French, English and Italian.
2. If I can be of help, we'll fix a time for a messenger conversation.
3. The messenger conversation (45 to 60 minutes) shall cost you 50 euro. It's as simple as that.

HOW WILL THE ONE-ON-ONE SESSION HELP ME?

Whether it's a doctor, a tutor, or a physical trainer, in the "real world" we use one-on-one consulting to resolve many of the important issues that we face throughout life.

Yet when it comes to something like promoting yourself or looking for gig opportunities, we often forget that a more experienced perspective can often give us the tiny push we need to ultimately overcome whatever obstacles or points of confusion that we face.

When you hire me for a one-on-one consulting session we can go over anything that you want to go over and that is related to booking gigs and presenting yourself to agencies, festivals, venues. I'll send you a questionnaire before our one-to-one messenger conversation to help you guide your thoughts.

If we see that you'll need some more assistance and that I can provide you with useful coaching services, we'll make a simple agreement about a coaching plan. We'll also decide about a payment plan.

Most of the people I've been collaborating with have appreciated my services and have found them helpful.

The pre-condition is of course for you to understand that the music industry is a very competitive one, and that it is not enough to make good music (which is of course the first step).

HOW MUCH WILL THE SESSION COST?

It's well known that most consultants inflate their prices to reflect the sporadic nature of this type of work. Usually my price is 150 euro/hour. However, I intentionally keep my prices low so they are affordable to musicians. It's well possible you'll not need more than the preliminary session (50 euro).

If you need more assistance, based on the plan we'll come with together, we'll discuss how much money you can bring in the game and for what services, and make an agreement.
