Dynamic in form and function, Lamborghini unveils its 2016 Huracán LP 580-2 sports vehicle, a two-wheel drive version of its Huracán coupe. A sleek, aesthetically enhanced design that conveys beauty, power and performance, the LP 580-2 is first and foremost a seriously fun ride. It is engineered to deliver only the purest and most thrilling sports car experience drivers have come to expect from the Lamborghini luxury brand. Boasting a 5.2 liter V10 engine, a seven-speed dual-clutch automatic with a choice of three driving modes: Strada, Sport and Corsa, the LP 580-2 provides oversteering characteristics that convey authentic rear-wheel drive. At an estimated starting price of $200,000, enjoy maximum drive performance as you accelerate from 0-62 mph in just 3.4 seconds.
