Premier Brazilian furnishings innovator, Artefacto, helmed by CEO Paulo Bacchi, recently unveiled the sixth edition of its annual Design House now on display throughout the Coral Gables showroom. Aptly themed, "A Fashionable Life," the exhibition explores the connection between high fashion and interior design in a year-long event that began with a VIP preview in October 2016, and coincides with the celebration of the brand's 40th anniversary.

Showcasing vignettes that convey the personal styles of nine, handpicked designers of international renown, these curated spaces incorporate new pieces from Artefacto's Fall 2016/Winter 2017 collections, and were inspired by the unique creations of world famous fashion houses. CRISTINA AND MONICA SOUZA FOR TOM FORD

Designing sisters Cristina and Monica Souza, native Brazilians with a passion for art and design, are principals of the Miami-based interior design group Avant Design. For this year's Design House they created a space inspired by style icon Tom Ford. A vignette featuring a rich emerald and black color palette revolves around velvet-clad pieces such as Artefacto's ergonomic "Ricci" chair, constructed with internal position memory.

MIRTHA ARRIARAN FOR VALENTINO

Interior designer Mirtha Arriaran's tailored living space is colored with black, white and cool gray hues, and is inspired by renowned fashion icon, Valentino. The room features the "Pipo" chair, one of eight limited edition pieces designed by Alejandro Estrada, exclusively available in the U.S. at Artefacto showrooms. The sleek "Cage II" sofa clad in white, lends a stylish impression opposite wall art that adds color to the space with a pop of red.

LUCIANA FRAGALI FOR VICTORIA BECKHAM

A light-filled dining space created with warm tones of beiges and browns defines interior designer Luciana Fragali's vignette. Inspired by the style of fashion's "posh" designer, Victoria Beckham, six handstitched dining chairs surround a table from Artefacto to convey sophistication, while displays of iconic artwork and fashion photography lend glamour to the stylish ensemble.

MARISOL PINTO FOR BRUNELLO CUCINELLI

Brazilian interior designer Marisol Pinto pairs with Italian fashion giant Brunello Cucinelli to create a warm and tranquil environment. This sleek space, created in beige and cocoa tones, features offerings from Artefacto's new collection that includes the polished "Maddox" sectional and the versatile "Rio" dining table.

ALISON ANTROBUS & RUBY RAMIREZ FOR STELLA MCCARTNEY

Alison Antrobus and Ruby Ramirez, the principal designers behind Antrobus + Ramirez Design, created a textured space with a black and beige color palette that consists of organic and synthetic materials. Eco-friendly furnishings, such as the "Milpa" cocktail table and cube side tables, are in sync with fashion designer Stella McCartney's commitment to the use of only cruelty-free materials.

SUSY ACOSTA FOR LANVIN

Venezuelan interior designer Susy Acosta's vignette, featuring dark grays and black tones, conveys a sleek and contemporary environment that captures the essence of Lanvin, the "très chic" Parisian fashion house. An arrangement of sophisticated pieces such as Artefacto's new "Russell" armchairs designed with mirrored edges, and its dark wood stools named, "Miami Beach Blocks," create a visually compelling geometric space.

DANIELA SALIBA FOR EMILIO PUCCI

Inspiring the runways for decades with its provocative bold designs, the fashion house of Emilio Pucci pairs seamlessly with interior designer Daniela Saliba to create a crisp modern space. Airy green and pink accent pillows decorate casual furnishings clad in white in a room that is aptly nicknamed, "The Outdoor Comfort." Hanging above Artefacto's pair of sleek white sofas is a dazzling Pucci wall installation that adds a cool trendy vibe.

CARY FERNANDEZ FOR DOLCE & GABBANA

Interior designer Cary Fernandez makes her Design House debut paired with stylish inspiration from the famed Dolce & Gabbana. A sophisticated bedroom vignette revolves around a color palette of rich maroon and beige tones. Curvy arrangements from Artefacto's newest collection features such pieces as the rounded "Jean" sofa and a marble-topped cocktail table.
