

REAL DIVORCE SOLUTIONS

A BETTER WAY TO MOVE FORWARD

Let me introduce what we do. We offer real solutions for bringing your divorce to a civilized conclusion - privately, confidentially, and without lawyers. Our mission is to help save your time, money and resources for moving forward with your new lives.

Although I am an attorney, my practice is limited to mediating family legal issues without attorneys out of court. This is a voluntary process that helps people come to their own resolutions rather than the adversarial process offered by the courts and the expense of hiring lawyers. I am completely impartial and do not take anyone's side or become their advocate. My job as a trained neutral professional is to help both parties resolve their legal issues privately.

If you do not come to an agreement, you still have the ability to resolve this in the court system. I encourage parties to try this method first. It's far more economical and gives you the opportunity to put the issues behind you much faster. It is also more flexible than the court system. You can come to more creative solutions as opposed to a straight application of the law by the court.

All family legal issues are on the table. We handle child custody, support, alimony, distribution of assets and liabilities - basically any legal issue your family needs resolved.

I provide free confidential phone consultations to both parties so they can decide whether to choose this method. Please feel free to call me at (727) 456-9006. You can also book a phone appointment online <https://www.realdivorcesolutions.com/book-online>

If you decide to proceed, we can meet jointly or I can meet completely separately with each spouse. This often encourages open disclosure and discussion of your options. These meetings are completely confidential and I do not share what takes place with the other party unless you give me permission to do so.

If an agreement is reached, then I will prepare a written agreement to be signed by both parties. I also prepare all the legal documentation to obtain your uncontested divorce.

If you're already in a divorce and already have attorneys, you can still come to mediation with or without your lawyers. It's a way to take back control of your case and get it resolved.

Our offices are in downtown St. Petersburg and free parking is provided. I also offer virtual mediations if a party is located out of town.
